

THE FOREST FIRES
NOT ACCIDENTAL.SUSPICION THAT THEY WERE
OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN.

Arson to Hide Theft—Timber Pirates Sacrifice a Thousand Human Lives Investigation Will Be Held—Rain Ends the Conflagration in the Hinckley District.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Sept. 8.—Are "timber pirates" responsible for the fiery calamity which has befallen the Minnesota pine lands? There are intimations that the state senatorial committee which has been investigating the frauds against the state in the cutting of pine from school lands will be able to show astonishing evidence not only that "timber pirates" have appropriated millions of dollars' worth of lumber belonging to the state but that in trying to cover up their stealings they have started fires which have resulted in the terrible loss of life and property in Pine, Kanabec, Carlton and other counties in the pine belt.

Members of the committee have already declared that they have discovered large frauds against the state, and now it is expected that they will probe into the causes of the fires which have swept the whole pine country. The charge is that the lumbermen have fired the lands which they have improperly cleared to render measurement of stumpage impossible and thereby shut off any suits which the commission might attempt to bring against them.

One thing that strengthens the belief among lumbermen that the "pirates" are responsible for the fires is the fact that, except at the great fires along the Prestigio river in 1871, these fires have only swept the northern states in the last three or four years, and it is only within that time that really serious complaints against the promiscuous cutting of public timber have been made. Lumbermen point significantly to the fact that in the dense pine woods of the south no fires such as those which devastate the north have occurred. And down there the conditions for a sweep of flame are much more favorable than in the north. The ground is covered to a depth of twelve inches or more with decaying pine needles, and the green needles of a Georgian pine burn with as much intensity as a Minnesota balsam.

RAIN ENDS FOREST FIRES.

Heavy Downpour in Many of the Ravaged Districts.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 8.—Reports from Plainfield, Green Lake, Necadah, Green Bay, Hurley, Junction City, Grand Rapids and other cities indicate that the heavy rainfall has broken the drought and effectually quenched forest fires.

ESCANABA, Mich., Sept. 8.—The threatened forest fires that have been raging for some time in this section have been extinguished by a steady downpour of rain that has been falling since 7 o'clock last night. A great deal of property was in danger of destruction. Rain is reported to be falling all over the peninsula.

CUMBERLAND, Wis., Sept. 7.—The first rain for many weeks fell here yesterday checking the progress of the forest fires and relieving present apprehensions. The relief committee for fire sufferers reports new cases of destruction still coming from country districts, where the condition of things is terrible.

More Suffering in the North.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Sept. 8.—D. L. Fitzgerald of Brule sent in an appeal for assistance for the settlers in that vicinity. He says they are starving as a result of the forest fires. Poor Commissioner Kennedy turned the matter over to the relief committee and provisions were sent on the first train. The town of Brule is surrounded by fire. The Musser-Sauntry Lumber company is a heavy loser by fire along Moose river. It lost several camps and logging equipments in addition to many thousands of dollars' worth of standing pine.

St. John Threatened by Forest Fire. ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 8.—Forest fires are raging for several miles out side this city. The damage has been great and several villages are in danger. The loss to crops through Charlotta and St. John counties will be enormous. The fire is rapidly working its way toward the suburbs of this city and unless the wind changes the result will be disastrous. The city is enveloped in smoke.

Ishepeming Surrounded by Flames.

ISHEPEMING, Mich., Sept. 8.—Forest fires are still raging in the vicinity and consuming a large amount of young timber. The city is now surrounded by fire, but it is at some distance from dwellings and there is no immediate danger of property being destroyed. Light rain fell early this morning, but it was of no avail.

Ashland's Destitute Need Relief.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 8.—In addition to the calls already received for aid another has come from Ashland. There are 200 people there who really deserve assistance. Gov. Peck will probably name Spooner as the supply depot for that region. The contributions received to date amount to $3,724.

IRRIGATIONISTS WORK SLOWLY.

Several Papers Read While Waiting for Resolutions.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 7.—In the irrigation congress yesterday Joel Sheemaker of Utah moved that the committee on resolutions be requested to report at once. There was some opposition, but Mr. Sheemaker's motion was put and carried, a committee being appointed to wait on the committee on resolutions and demand its report. While waiting for the report many interesting papers were read. Judge Emery of Kansas advocated small farms and storage reservoirs and an irrigation survey for the purpose of discovering and distributing the water of the country for irrigation purposes. The congress took a recess until 2 o'clock.

The committee on resolutions presented its report immediately on reassembling. It consisted of a majority and minority report, and an address to the American people. The resolutions were discussed until 11 o'clock at night, without any vote having been taken. It is probable the majority report will be adopted.

THE CONKLING MYSTERY.

Detectives at Work on the Case—Big Reward Offered.

ELKHART, Ind. Sept. 8.—The developments in the disappearance of Dr. A. B. Conkling of Cassopolis, Mich., have added more evidence of a conspiracy to murder him. Tuesday night he was lured from his home to his death. The best detective in the state is at work on the case and as the mystery deepens public interest increases. It came out yesterday that Dr. Conkling was a leading witness in an action brought for irregular practice against a fellow practitioner and this fact is hinted at as being closely allied with the conspiracy. Dr. Conkling was vigorous in his denunciation of his fellow physician's crime, and his testimony, it is said, would have been convicting. A reward of $2,000 is now offered for a solution of the mysterious crime.

Union Pacific Wages Decision.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 8.—In the Oregon Railway and Navigation wage schedule in the United States court Judge Bellinger yesterday rendered an important decision on a question in point, the exact reverse of a decision rendered by Judge Caldwell in the United States court at Omaha. Judge Bellinger upholds the authority of the receiver to make any change he may think proper without an order from the court.

Will Not Pay the Drill Prize.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The local executive committee of the K. of P. encampment has decided not to pay the $500 drill prize awarded to the first Indianapolis battalion, Col. Heiskell commanding, because the company did not conform to the drill orders of General Carnahan. Colonel Heiskell declares he will carry the matter to the supreme lodge and, if necessary, to the courts.

Indians Were Not Burned.

POKEGAMA, Minn., Sept. 8.—The dispatch from here yesterday to the effect that the bodies of twenty-three Chippewa Indians had been burned to a crisp on Mille Lacs lake is said to have been untrue. The fire did not run through the Indian country. Besides, there is no Chief Wauconta at the head of any Indian tribe in this section.

California Express Ditched.

RATON, N. M., Sept. 8.—The California express west bound on the Santa Fe was ditched at Dillon junction, two miles south of here, last evening. The engine, baggage car, mail car and express car are a complete loss. Four men were injured. The cause of the wreck was an open switch.

Short Wheat Crop Noted in Hungary.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Eugene Germane, United States consul at Zurich, Switzerland, has forwarded a report dated Aug. 24 concerning the crop of Hungary. It shows the wheat crop is superior in quality, but about 15 to 20 per cent less than that of last year. The estimated crop is about 3,700,000 tons of wheat.

Killed in a Fight Over a Woman.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 8.—Frank Dalton shot and fatally wounded James Risdon near Rockfort yesterday afternoon during a quarrel over a young woman, who was engaged to both young men. Dalton escaped and has not been arrested.

Pythians Will Protest.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 8.—A general meeting of the Knights of Pythias in this city has been called for Sept. 13 to protest against the criticism of the German members by Supreme Chancellor Blackwell at the Washington encampment.

Black Smallpox in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 8.—Mary Summers, colored, 23 years old, died last night at the hospital with black smallpox. Scores of people have been exposed during her illness and other cases are feared. It is not known when the woman contracted the disease.

Two National League Games Void.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The game which was transferred to New York by the Louisville team, and that transferred to Philadelphia by Cincinnati will be thrown out of the league record. The unanimous consent of all the clubs is necessary for transfers of this kind, and eight clubs objected instead of assenting.

DEBS CASE GOES ON BOTH SIDES UGLY.

WITNESSES AGAINST AMERICAN RAILWAY UNION.

Some Testimony Which is Calculated to Prejudice the Case of the Defendants—Fireman Mackay Says He Was Forced—Tales of the Employees.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Interest in the American Railway Union contempt cases yesterday was as great as when the proceedings opened two days ago. All seats in the court room were taken early.

James Clark was first called to the stand, but he was passed for the time without examination to let out-of-town witnesses be heard first. L. F. Keiger of Milwaukee was then sworn. He told the court that he was not a member of the American Railway Union. He was a member of the Switchtenders' union. On July 4 an American Railway Union man in Milwaukee showed the witness a telegram received from Debs which said that the American Railway Union was winning and counseled firmness. The man with the telegram wanted witness to join the American Railway Union and the strike. Witness did not do either. Only twelve members of the local Switchtenders' union went on strike. They were members of the American Railway Union, and they went back to work two days after they went on strike.

Messrs. Erwin, Gregory, Geeting and Darrow for the defense objected to every sentence uttered by the witness as irrelevant, but Judge Woods informed the gentlemen that the question of relevancy was one for the court to decide. He permitted the testimony to go on.

Engineer William Mackay of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul told the court that when his train was ready to start from Milwaukee for Chicago on July 5 his fireman, one Mills, was approached by six or seven men, who talked with him and induced him to leave the engine. Mackay came to Chicago with a new fireman.

After more objections, which the court overruled, this testimony was admitted. Fireman Charles E. Mills was then called. He said that he left his engine because he was intimidated. The judge ordered this ruled out and told the witness to repeat the conversation held with the men who induced him to leave the engine.

He said that the men who approached him were switchmen. They told him that they had all left that engine and that they wanted him to leave. One said: "Take your clothes and come with us." Charley, or you're no friend of mine. Another said: "If you go you'll never get back out of Chicago alive," and another: "You won't get beyond the second street crossing here in Milwaukee before you'll be sorry for going." He went with these men and joined the American Railway Union at once. A rigid cross-examination by Mr. Erwin failed to shake Mills' testimony.

The next witness sworn was Richard Fitzgerald, superintendent of a stock yards transfer company. He corroborated the testimony given Wednesday by Mr. Brenock as to the difficulty in getting dead stock removed from the yards and the city.

Court was then adjourned until Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

TO CUT THE CANAL.

Is Said the Work on the Great Panama Scheme is to Be Resumed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—After a suspension of nearly five years work is to be resumed on the colossal Panama canal project some time next month. French and American capitalists have, it is said, been quietly preparing the way, and now they are nearly ready to begin operations. One of the first steps necessary was the passage of a law exempting the property of the canal company from seizure by its creditors. This being effected, as soon as the assets of the old concern are transferred to a new corporation all will be smooth sailing, so far as the management is concerned.

Woman Arrested for Murder.

JACKSON, Mo., Sept. 8.—Mrs. Mary Ellsworth, 50 years old, has been lodged in jail here for the murder of Henry Stiff, a blacksmith at Oriole and a neighbor of Mrs. Ellsworth. Bad feeling existed on account of certain charges against Stiff and counter charges against a grown daughter of Mrs. Ellsworth. Mrs. Ellsworth, her son Pressly and the daughter drove to the home of Stiff, who was called out and without a word Mrs. Ellsworth began firing on him at close range. Stiff ran, pursued by the woman, who emptied her revolver into the helpless man. The son also shot Stiff in the back, killing him. The son has not been caught.

California Raisin Crop Short.

FRESNO, Cal., Sept. 8.—The general report received throughout the raisin vineyards is that the first crop, while of good quality, is falling far short of expectations in the matter of amount. One of the leading vineyards, which had 166 tons of first crop raisins last year, has only eighty-five tons this year. The second crop in this instance is far short of that of last year.

TRADE NOT SETTLED
BY THE NEW TARIFF

BUSINESS OUTLOOK OF A VARIABLE CHARACTER.

In Some Branches Strong Improvement is Shown, While in Others Trade is Diminishing—Failures Reported for the Past Week—The General Prospect.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly Review of Trade says: "The business outlook is much like an April day with alternate clouds and sunshine. In some branches strong improvement still continues, while in others trade is diminishing. The government crop report is expected to foreshadow a great loss in corn, while other observers believe reports materially exaggerated and estimates of the yield range all the way from 1,500,000,000 to 1,700,000,000. This uncertainty affects business prospects to some extent and an advance of ½ cent the last week has followed receipts not half those of the same week last year. Wheat receipts have been 5,677,157 bushels against 4,550,337 last year, and yet the price advanced ¾ cent, although Atlantic exports were only 1,158,674 bushels against 2,117,644 last year. Pork advanced 25 cents per barrel and lard 25 cents per 100 pounds, as smaller estimates of the corn supply were entertained.

The first bills against spot cotton of the new crop have appeared and the Financial Chronicle estimates the yield at 8,500,000 to 9,000,000 bales, its record of last year's crop being 7,527,211 bales, though late in the year some prophets predicted only 6,500,000 bales. Total appearance the new crop will exceed the maximum world's consumption of American, of which the stock carried over Sept. 1 here and abroad was 1,589,484 bales.

Sales of wool have fallen to 4,115,100 pounds, of which about 1,000,000 pounds actually belonged to the previous week, against 7,616,800 in 1892, and domestic fine wool has weakened about a cent at Boston, although Australian has advanced 1½ cents, with stronger foreign markets.

"Failures in August aggregated liabilities of $10,139,476, of which $3,172,330 were on manufacturing and $5,078,153 in trading concerns. During the week the failures were 215 in the United States, against 323 last year, and 47 in Canada, against 25 last year."

BEGGS DENIES THE STORY.

Vice-President of the Whisky Trust Knows of No Receivership Plans.

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 8.—Vice-President Beggs of the whisky trust said there was nothing whatever to the report that application was to be made for the appointment of a receiver for the trust. John Stevens, attorney for the trust, said the information given him by newspaper men was the first he had heard of the rumor of a receiver for the trust. Mr. Stevens was asked concerning a meeting of the directors of the trust to be held to-day and said to his knowledge there was not to be one. He had not been informed and certainly there would be no meeting until after the arrival of Mr. Greenhut, which would not be until next week.

In Memory of Their Founder.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias is nearing the close of its sessions. A movement was started yesterday to erect a monument to Major Rathbone, the founder of the order, who is buried at Utica, N. Y. The supreme lodge set aside the action of the supreme chancellor and major-general of the uniform rank is dishonorably dismissing from that rank Col. W. D. Crichton of Fresno, Cal., on the ground that he had not been given a hearing. Much interest is taken in the case in the west. This action still leaves it open for the preferment of charges.

Troops at Nicaragua.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Sept. 8.—Troops are being concentrated here, and the garrisons at Granada and Corinto are being reinforced. The government persists in denying the rumor, though it is generally believed, that seven prisoners captured at Corinto and Granada have been shot.

Severe Storm at Denver.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 8.—This city and vicinity were visited by a severe storm at 5 o'clock last evening, rain falling in torrents, accompanied by hail and lightning. One house was struck by lightning and slightly damaged and the movement of street cars greatly interfered with. No serious damage is reported.

North Dakota Fusion Discussed.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Sept. 8.—The combined executive committees of the populists and democrats of North Dakota have been holding a series of meetings at Fargo behind closed doors to discuss another fusion scheme. Many of the populists oppose it.

Japan is Raising Money.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 8.—By the Empress of Japan the information is brought of Japan's renewed contention that she will have no difficulty floating the proposed war loan of 30,000,000 yen. The Bankers' union is said to have subscribed two-thirds of the amount, the remainder being taken by private individuals.

MRS. DRAYTON IS READY.

Prepares to Fight Her Husband's Divorce Proceedings.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Mrs. Drayton not only does not regret the bringing of the divorce suit by her husband, but received the news of it gladly and arranged that the papers might be served on her expeditiously. Mrs. Drayton not only will contest the divorce suit, but will fight it to the bitter end. Mrs. Drayton will answer Mr. Drayton's petition for divorce with a cross petition alleging unfaithfulness on his part and gross violation of his marriage vows. Hallett Allsop Borrowe, the co-respondent in the case, was seen in his office at the car house of the New York division of the New Jersey Traction company, for which he is superintendent. He said: "The charges made in Mr. Drayton's petition are false—absolutely false. That is all I have to say in the matter."

SENTENCING STRIKERS.

Indiana Court Discharges Some and Sends Others to Jail.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 8.—Judge Baker took up the strikers' cases in the United States court yesterday and after hearing the evidence against several defendants sentenced some and set others free. Hiram Alger of Ashley, a division point on the Wabash, was discharged. He was charged with attempting to persuade the master mechanic not to take out a train. Arthur Dishens and Oscar Larsen had lain in jail forty days for the part taken in the Hammond riot. Larsen was discharged and Dishens, whose home is at Lansing, Wis., was given thirty days more in jail. The case against Debs and the other A. R. U. officials was not reached.

Indiana Methodists Meet.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 8.—Yesterday was the third day of the Northwest Indiana conference. The committee appointed to revise the rules and regulations of the Preachers' Aid society reported that there would be a number of modifications and asked that time be extended until the next session of conference, which request was granted. An invitation from the First Methodist Episcopal church of Valparaiso, asking the conference to meet there next year, was accepted. Dr. John P. D. John, president of De Pauw university, said that the expenses of the institution had increased, while the income had not and that a deficit of about $15,000 existed. It is hoped the deficit will be overcome this year.

National Pythian Sanitarium.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 8.—Past Supreme Chancellor George W. Watson received a telegram from Washington yesterday that the resolution giving the sanction of the supreme lodge to the National Pythian sanitarium to be located here passed that body. This gives the grand lodge of this state authority to solicit contributions throughout the supreme domain to carry out the project when the sum of $30,000 shall have been subscribed in this state, of which $25,000 has already been pledged. The city of Hot Springs has subscribed a bonus of $15,000.

Fatal Train Wreck at Staunton, Ill.

STAUNTON, Ill., Sept. 8.—The Toledo passenger train going east ran into some coal cars at 8:20 yesterday and completely demolished the engine, mail and baggage cars, and one passenger coach, killing two men who were beating their way on the front end of the car and seriously injuring Engineer S. C. Flanning. Fireman C. A. Sammis has received serious but not fatal injuries.

Life Association Insolvent.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The Mutual Benefit Life Association of America, whose principal office is at No. 177 Broadway, this city, is insolvent. The association has policies outstanding the face value of which is something like $10,000,000. There are unpaid death claims aggregating $200,000, some of which the association contests.

For an Assault on Peking.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—A dispatch from Yokohama dated Sept. 6, says: "Field Marshal Yamagata has started for Korea to assume command of the Japanese army, which amounts to over 100,000 men. It is supposed that an attack will be made on Peking at once."

George F. Work Free.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—George F. Work, the banker and financier who was sentenced in February, 1891, to serve four years in the eastern penitentiary for fraudulently taking and confiscating bank securities, was released yesterday.

Arctic Survivors Reach Halifax.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 8.—The British steamer St. Pierre, which arrived here yesterday from Newfoundland, brings the crew of the Cook arctic excursion steamer Miranda, which was abandoned in a sinking condition on Aug. 23 last.

Robert Holland Safe.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 8.—A special from Manitowoc reports the arrival there of the steamer Robert Holland, fifteen days from the Manitow Island. The Holland was supposed to be lost.

Princess Bismarck Has a Relapse.

BERLIN, Sept. 8.—A dispatch from Vienna this morning says that Princess Bismarck has had a slight relapse, and that she is confined to her bed.

EIGHT TOWNS FEEL
LIGHTNING'S BLOW.

BELVIDERE, CALEDONIA, HERBERT AND MALTA.

Business District of the Last Named Completely Wiped Out—Henrietta Suffered a Similar Loss—Jove's Bolts Fell With Terrible Force—Storms in Other Localities.

DE KALB, Sept. 8.—Lightning played havoc with eight towns in this section last night. It totally destroyed the business portion of Malta and Henrietta, completely wiped out four buildings at Caledonia, which were struck at different times and burned. Serious damage was also done in Belvidere and Herbert.

Lima Flooded by a Cloud Burst.

LIMA, Ohio, Sept. 8.—A cloud burst struck this city at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon accompanied by heavy wind. Many cellars were flooded and considerable damage was done to shade trees, roofs and outbuildings. It is reported as having been much heavier at Westminster, a town south-east of here.

Damage by Rain and Lightning.

SAGINAW, Mich., Sept. 8.—A severe electric storm raged here last evening four hours. The rain fell in torrents, cellars filled up, sewers overflowed, and the water is nearly two feet deep on all down-town business streets. Considerable damage has been done.

AROUND THE GLOBE.

D. O. Mills Starts on His Trip—Will Be Joined by Whitelaw Reid.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—D. O. Mills has started for San Francisco, whence he will sail on a voyage around the world. He goes to the Sandwich Islands, Japan, China and India, reaching Egypt in January. There he will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, who are to sail for Gibraltar in November, and after a few weeks in the southern Spain and on the north coast of Africa are to make their way to Cairo. The united party has chartered a steamer for the Nile and will go up to the second cataract. On their return they are to take camels and cross the desert to Mount Sinai, entering Palestine at the junction of the Jordan with the Dead sea, and going out by way of the sea of Galilee and Damascus. They will probably reach Paris and London by May and be back in New York by June.

CANADIAN DUTY RAISED.

Pulp Logs Will Pay 40 Cents a Cord Unless Made in the Provinces.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Consul Gen. Reilly of Quebec, Que., has telegraphed the state department the following extract from the Official Gazette, published at Quebec. The consul general requested that the matter be transmitted to Secretary Carlisle: Whereas the present rate of dues chargeable on spruce logs is 25 cents per cord of 128 cubic feet, and whereas it is advisable to raise it, while allowing a reduction when pulp wood is to be manufactured in this province, it is ordered that the rate of dues on spruce logs for paper pulp be fixed at 40 cents per cord of 128 cubic feet, but that a reduction of 15 cents per cord be allowed when the pulp wood is to be manufactured in the province.

Notified to Look Out for Anarchists.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The bureau of immigration has forwarded to the several commissioners of immigration at the various ports of the United States detailed descriptions of twenty-six anarchists recently expelled from France and believed to be en route to the United States.

Ammunition for China.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A rumor is current in New Haven, Conn., that the Winchester Repeating Arms company has shipped $1,000,000 rounds of ammunition to the Chinese government for use in the Oriental war. Officials of the company decline to talk about the affair.

No National League Games Yesterday.

No games were played in the National league yesterday. Games scheduled for to-day are: Boston at Chicago, Brooklyn at St. Louis, New York at Cleveland, Philadelphia at Pittsburgh, Baltimore at Louisville, Washington at Cincinnati.

Nevada Populists' Platform.

RENO, Nev., Sept. 8.—The populist convention reconvened yesterday. The platform demands free unlimited coinage of silver at the rate of 16 to 1, and demands the repeal of national bank laws.

Murdered His Neighbor.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Sept. 8.—Michael Sobieski and G. Hill, two farmers living near Correctionville, in this county, quarreled over the action of Sobieski's daughter and Sobieski shot Hill and then committed suicide.

County Treasurer $18,000 Short.

CANTON, Ohio, Sept. 8.—Retiring County Treasurer Mandru has been found $18,000 short. He claims it is an error and has asked the auditor of state to make an examination of his books.

Failure in Sedalia.

SEDALIA, Mo., Sept. 8.—W. S. Mackey's wholesale boot and shoe house has been closed on a deed of trust. The preferred indebtedness is $27,500.

RANDALL A FIGHTER AMONG INDIANS

ARMY OFFICERS RECOGNIZE HIS CLEAR GRIT.

His Associates Were Good Men—Heroic Deeds of Lieutenant Cushing and Captain Emmet Crawford in Battle and Pursuit With Crook—Cocheis, Chato and Geronimo.

Colonel George M. Randall's friends might know him for a life-time before hearing from his own lips any army tales. The colonel's experiences are well known in army circles and they extend through many campaigns. Major George L. Kilmer says:

The campaigns of 1872 and of 1884 each opened with a tragedy of the kind so mournfully common on the plains—the useless sacrifice of gallant soldiers worthy of a sublimer fate. The victim of 1872 was Lieutenant Howard B. Cushing, Third cavalry, the last of a trio of brothers whose deeds in another age and land would have won them rank in the order of knighthood.

The first Cushing craved "one more shot" at Pickett's column while he lay dying across the trail of the smoking cannon on Cemetery Ridge; the second destroyed the ram Albemarle, and Howard, it is believed on the border, killed more Apache warriors in fair stand-up fighting than any other man in the United States army.

Certainly no savage ever trod the war-path more keenly alert or more terrible in his anger than young Cushing when he rode at the head of Troop F into Arizona late in 1870 to protect the helpless settlers from Indian atrocities, for he nursed within his heart a memory only to be wiped out in blood. The year before a band of Apaches raiding across the mountains in Texas had ambushed Troop F and killed the boon comrade of its leader, Lieutenant Yeaton, and from the day he entered Arizona until his death Lieutenant Cushing was abroad on the scout running to earth some lurking handful or giving open battle to a whole band of warriors. At the time of the fierce outbreak in the spring of 1871 Cushing was continually in the saddle among the mountains. Riding into Bear Springs canyon one day at the head of 22 men, he fell into an ambush laid by the famous Cocheis, one of the chiefs of the Chiricahua Apaches. As usual, Cushing showed fight and made a stand until the Indians swarmed into the canyon in his rear. Then, facing part of his men about, he charged back to open a road of escape. The wily Apaches gave proof of their respect for the doughty Indian slayer by keeping at a distance so long as he remained in the saddle. The death of several of his men gave them no encouragement, but when at last he fell they charged the remaining troopers and nearly annihilated the command. Cocheis, the leader of this attack, became celebrated among his people for this exploit, and the tribe went on the warpath partly through fear of the white man's vengeance and partly to win more glory.

The entire Apache nation either took up arms or encouraged the outbreak by giving it sympathy, and when General Crook arrived on the scene to suppress with ordinary means the wildest savages that ever roamed the plains old frontiersmen smiled at the credulity of the government and the army. The Apache is not only equal to the cleverest of his savage brethren in the wiles and tricks of warfare, but has the habits and endurance of a veritable wild man. In the semitropical climate of his habitat his garb need be little more than nature gave him. His food of jerked meat and parched cornmeal is carried on his person, and if that gives out he can live on the cactus growing abundantly along the trail. He had the run of 1,000 miles of hill and plain, of which he knew every foot of ground and every water hole. On the warpath each brave is supplied with three to five ponies and thinks nothing of making 70 miles a day, against 20 of the best equipped cavalry. Besides in Arizona in 1871 there were settlements along the trail to supply food where their destruction was finally brought about by rolling huge rocks upon them from the cliff above. One wounded brave crawled among the rocks, where he was overlooked by the soldiers when they gathered in their captives, and escaped to warn and turn back another party, which was heading for the canyon. This band retired to a stronghold on Tonto creek, where the Salt river tactics were repeated, with the same results. Major George M. Randall, an old war veteran, with some of his Twenty-third infantry, charged the savage camp on a precipice at dawn and drove the warriors headlong to their death down the rocky height. These two victories broke the fighting spirit of the Apache nation. They had met only two of Crook's detachments, but he had a score of such in reserve. All of the tribes made peace and went upon reservations, promising to learn the white man's ways and industries. After the "drubbing" came the lesson, and Crook was transferred from the department at the end of the year to go north and thrash the Sioux and Cheyennes into submission.

One band of the Apaches evaded the touch of Crook's discipline—that is, they missed the thrashing and paid little or no attention to the lesson. These were the Chiricahuas, led by Cocheis, the wily, wily, but stately and magnificent heathen who had butchered Cushing. The Chiricahuas were exempted from Crook's jurisdiction and were never conquered. They sneaked on to the reservation when they needed food or clothing or ammunition and made off again when under the impulse for plunder or blood. One day in 1882 the whole band of over 700 souls set out for the Sierra Madre mountains in Mexico, and in crossing southern Arizona left behind the usual trail of smoldering embers and scapless heads. Crook was recalled to the field by the cries of the frightened settlers and "friendlies," who nicknamed him affectionately the "Old Gray Fox," but before he had time to organize a murdering band for their deliverance a murdering band of Chiricahuas sallied from their

IN A HAND TO HAND STRUGGLE.

Sierra Madre stronghold, dashing through Sonora, Arizona and New Mexico on a circuit of over 800 miles, slaughtering or carrying away captive Mexican and American alike. The Chiricahuas on this raid of March, 1883, numbered but 25 braves and were led by the successor of Cocheis, a young chief of superior intellect and unusual daring, named Chato. The campaign, which ended in a few weeks in the return to the reservation of every male, squaw and child of the Chiricahuas, stands unparalleled in border history. Crook enlisted 200 Apache scouts and placed at their head Captain Emmet Crawford, Cushing's former comrade of the Third cavalry. Other detachments of soldiers took their stations along the border, but the scouts, accompanied by Crook and 43 white soldiers, pushed on the back trail to the savage lair in the Sierra Madre mountains. The Indian camps one by one fell under skillful attacks, planned while the braves were absent. Raiding in the Mexican settlements. The scattered war parties returned to find their enemies masters of the situation.

For two years more General Crook continued his civilizing methods with the Chiricahuas, but in May, 1885, 124 of them, under lead of Geronimo and Natchez, broke from the reservation and fled to the Sierra Madre. Captain Crawford, the fittest man by reason of his long experience in command of the American patrol on the Mexican border, volunteered to lead the pursuit in the mountains, and he kept the field in Arizona and Sonora constantly from May, 1885, until Jan. 11, 1886, when he was killed by Mexican irregulars, who attacked his camp just after he had thrashed the savages and arranged for negotiations for peace.

Geronimo offered to surrender on terms which the government refused to accept, and General Crook asked to be relieved. General Nelson A. Miles, the hero of the Nez Perce campaign of 1877, then appeared in Arizona for the express purpose of bringing Geronimo to his senses. To show his contempt for the new white chief, the renegade sallied forth from his mountains and swept over Sonora and southern Arizona on a raid of slaughter and plunder. Adopting Crook's methods, Miles organized a picked force of whites and Indians and put them on the fresh trail. The pursuit lasted from May until September, and soldiers who had served in India and South Africa described it as the roughest warfare they had ever engaged in. The heat often reached 120 degrees F., and the foot soldiers marched in their underclothing. The roughness of the country made cavalry pursuit impossible, and the rations for the men were carried on pack mules. The trail wound among the rugged mountains and deep canyons of Sonora, and at a point 300 miles beyond the international boundary Geronimo and Natchez, with all their tawny following, surrendered. Between the deaths of Cushing, in 1871, and Crawford, in 1886, a score of hideous massacres and countless individual murders had blackened the record of these Chiricahua Apaches.

GEORGE L. KILMER.

Rock County Fair.

For the above occasion the Northwestern line will sell excursion tickets to Janesville and return at greatly reduced rates; tickets on sale September 10 to 14, good for return passage until September 15, 1894. For tickets and full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern railway.

Appeal Christ Church.

The members of Christ church and their friends are hereby requested to come to church Sunday prepared to make an offering for the sufferers by forest fires in our state. Orders for clothing and provision may be placed in the offertory and said goods will be placed in the offertory and said goods will be called for Monday morning.

A. H. BARRINGTON,
Rector.

TICKET IS STRONG IN EVERY RESPECT.

REPUBLICANS ARE HARPY
OVER THE PROSPECTS.

Maltress Men Furnished Votes Enough to Nominate Appleby and the Beloit Men Returned the Favor By Plumping a Few for Rowe—The County Committee.

Editor F. W. Coon of Edgerton, went into the republican convention yesterday with a determination to have R. J. Maltress nominated for sheriff if such a thing could be brought about by pulling political wires. On the second formal ballot Appleby had 56 votes, Acheson 41, Maltress 11, Brink 10, Gleason, Nelson and Lynch 1 each. "Appleby must get five more votes to win," said the Edgerton man. "Now if the Brink men will only stand firm, we will see a deadlock, for there are only three votes outside the combination, and Appleby can only count on two, while one is likely to go to Acheson, leaving the Beloit man three votes less than he wants for a nomination. I think our chances of nominating Maltress are very good yet."

The ballot was then going on, and the Edgerton men could be seen with their handsome Maltress badges flitting around, urging the Brink men to stand firm, hoping to form a successful combination after creating a dead lock between Appleby and Acheson. They were surprised, however, for the decisive ballot was soon announced and Appleby had the desired 61 votes, and their own men had furnished four of the number, while the Brink men lost but one. Gleason and Nelson held their own, Nelson dropping out and Acheson gaining one. The union between Edgerton and Beloit had its effect later, when O. D. Rowe's Edgerton friends called for Beloit's support in his behalf, and got it.

Completing the Ticket.

After the nomination of W. A. Jackson for district attorney, O. G. Bleedorn was nominated for surveyor, and Richard O'Donnell for coroner, both nominations being by acclamation.

Clerk of the Court E. D. McGowan, who had many promises of support for a renomination authorized the withdrawal of his name before the first ballot was taken. Mr. Jeffris making the withdrawal. In this act Mr. McGowan won new laurels and the statement made by Mr. Jeffris that Rock county never had a more faithful and competent clerk, was received with great applause. Mr. McGowan, who at the end of his present term, will have served eight years, will return to the practice of law, "in which," said Mr. Jeffris, "he is an able and brilliant light."

County Organization Perfected.

W. T. Vankirk was re-elected chairman of the county committee, and on motion each town and ward was directed to hand in a name for member of the county committee. The following names were sent to the secretary:

Avon—James Cox.
Clinton—A. W. Shepard.
Center—Grant A. Fisher.
Fulton—George W. Coxhead.
La Prairie—M. O. Vangelder.
Milton—Wm. C. Whitford.
Newark—H. G. Nelson.
Plymouth—A. J. Snyder.
Rock—U. G. Waite.
Spring Valley—D. Mowse.
Turtle—C. H. Everett.
Union—W. F. Little.

Janesville City—First ward, G. H. Davey.

Beloit City—First ward, F. S. Foster; second ward, Cham Ingersoll; third ward, J. A. Janvria; fourth ward, L. W. Kendall.

Edgerton city—A. S. Flagg.
Evanston village—W. T. Boyd.
Clinton village—W. A. Mayhew.
Convention was a Harmonious One.

The convention was one of the most enthusiastic ever held in the county. Never before has there been a more thorough personal canvass made in the county by candidates, and never before have there been so many candidates seeking place on the republican ticket. Notwithstanding these facts, there was the best of personal feeling manifest among all. There was no bitterness manifest, but the candidates one and all had no ill will towards others. The contest was a fair and manly struggle for place, and the victors may well congratulate themselves that they have no personal scores to settle with defeated candidates.

While no better or stronger ticket could be nominated, the nominations in some instances were a surprise to "slate" makers. Wise politicians who had been up nights, and had tickets which they were sure would succeed, were hardly in the race when the ballot was counted.

TEACHER ELOPED TO MADISON.

Principal of the Edgerton Schools and Miss Baxter.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 7.—Henry A. Adrian and Miss Philo Baxter eloped from Monticello, Tuesday, and came to Madison, where they were married. The bride is a pretty young woman and her parents opposed the union. The groom is principal of the Edgerton schools and graduated from the state university in 1893.

They Sell Center Creamery Butter C. C. C.—Dunn Bros., W. T. Vankirk Skelly & Wilbur, Mrs. M. E. Hollis, are handling our "Center Creamery Co's." Columbian prize butter. Get the best and take no other.

FRED VANKIRK,
HUGO BOOTH.

OF PUBLIC INTEREST

A MATTER WHICH IS EXCITING
MUCH TALK.

It Concerns a Well Known and Prominent Family.

The Wife of an Honored and Respected Public Man Writes a Letter.

G. A. Williamson, Esq., has for thirty-five years been City Recorder of Deeds, of Providence, R. I. During all this time he and his family have occupied a very prominent position in Providence, where they are held in the utmost regard and esteem by everybody. They resided at 8 Bradford street.

Mrs. Williamson has for a long time been a great sufferer. She has lately been cured of her complaints by a most remarkable remedy and her love for her fellow beings is such that she writes the following letter telling them just what to do to be well and strong:

"For some time I had been troubled with numbness of my hands and arms. It was very distressing and a constant annoyance to me. My nervous system was badly affected. I was unable to sleep, getting but very little rest at night. I suffered from indigestion and my appetite was very poor. I learned of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and hearing it most highly spoken of, determined to use it. It had helped so many despairing sufferers I believed it would help me. After taking the second bottle I noticed a marked improvement and I continued to steadily gain in all respects. I cheerfully recommended Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to all sufferers."

No wonder everybody is taking this remarkable medicine, for it is a known fact that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy always cures. If you have any such troubles, if your health is not exactly what it should be, take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It will make you well. It is the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14 street, New York, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter. Don't neglect your health, but take this wonderful medicine now.

BRIEF BITS OF STATE NEWS.

RAHR & Sons of Green Bay have arranged to malt about 60,000 bushels of barley.

CITIZENS of Oshkosh fear an ice famine.

THE house of Barney McGuire, near Delavan, was destroyed by fire caused by a lamp explosion.

A YOUNG man named Collbeck is in jail at Darlington on a charge of driving off and selling sixteen head of cattle.

SEVERAL hundred tons of Brown county timothy hay are being shipped to New England. Last year one firm alone shipped about 2,000 pounds.

A COLONY of two hundred and seventy Pennsylvania Germans have just settled in and around Athens, Marathon county.

ONE of the forest fire survivors who took refuge in Skunk lake says he stayed there a long while, a good deal of the time with his head under water; that he thought there was somebody on each side of him, and when the smoke cleared off he discovered a bear on one side and a wolf on the other.

THEMES FOR SUNDAY SERMONS

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—Sermon by the pastor at the morning service, followed by ordination and installation of elders, reception of members and communion. The session will meet at 9:45 a. m. for the convenience of those wishing to meet with them. Union service in the evening announced elsewhere. Sabbath school at 12 noon. Prayer meeting on Thursday at 7:45 p. m. Young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m.

CHRIST CHURCH—Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity. Holy communion 8:00 a. m. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon 10:30 a. m. Sermon topic "Our Duty." Evening prayer and sermon 7:30 p. m. Evening prayer Friday 7:15 p. m. Special offering for sufferers by forest fires at the morning service.

COURT STREET M. E. CHURCH—Corner Court and Main streets. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. Theme of Discourse, "Holding On and Holding Out." Sunday School at noon. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Union services in Congregational church in the evening.

BAPTIST CHURCH—Preaching by the pastor in the morning. Subject, "Purpose of Christ's Mission." Sunday school at 12. Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at 6:30 p. m. The union service in the evening will be at the Congregational church.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Morning worship at 10:30, conducted by the pastor. Topic of sermon, "The Home Beyond." Union service in this church at 7:30. Subject of sermon, "Dreaming and Doing." Endeavor meeting at 6:30.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE—Meeting in Bennett block, room 4, Sunday service at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday evening at 7:30. Sunday topic, "The New Birth." All are cordially invited to come.

ADVENT CHRISTIAN—Service Caledonia room, Janesville, Sunday, September 9 at 7:30 p. m. Subject, "The Rich Man and Lazarus." A. E. Hatch, pastor.

ALL SOULS CHURCH—Sunday school will meet at 12 o'clock, George L. Carrington, superintendent.

JANESVILLE WOMAN, A RISING ARTIST.

MRS. ELLA G. STETSON WINS
CHICAGO PRAISE.

Her Paintings Are Pronounced of a High Order and Especial Praise Has Been Won By Her Most Pre-tentious Piece of Work, "The Lion's Bride."

Mrs. Ella G. Stetson, daughter of D. C. Burdick of this city, is winning fame in Chicago art circles. Her most important painting "The Lion's Bride," is reproduced as the frontispiece to the "American Youth" for September, and Amber in the Chicago Herald says:

"It was noontime of a glaring day when I stepped into the cool shadow of Mrs. Ella G. Stetson's studio around in Central Music Hall and seemed at once to find myself in a new and pleasant world. A world populated by pearly-tinted nymphs, who wore gauze where we wore fustian, and decked their flowing locks with blossoms in preference to bonnets. The walls were hung with pictures of dainty mites of maids in Gainsborough hats made from big chrysanthemum flowers and fluffy feathers, while on easels shoved partially back among the shadows gleamed lily-like faces and uplifted arms bearing burdens of blossoms that scattered through the air like snowy butterflies. There were choice marine studies, long lines of cliff powdered with spray and crissed with edges of beryl-tinted foam; surges on misty stretches of moorland, the higher side of which sparkled the sea, and sunset clouds like nasturtian blossoms piled above a shoal of cliffs and headlands. In the midst of all this pictured beauty sat Mrs. Stetson, a fair and graceful woman, whose manners are ever so faintly tinted with the bohemianism that pertains to legitimate art the world over. It may be said of Chicago, that we have less of that delightful atmosphere than other great city in the world, but, scanty as its leafage is, what there is of it is rooted in the true bohemian stock. Vulgarity and a loud code of conduct, uncleanness, either of person or morals, do not savor of bohemianism according to the rendering of the phase among either poets or painters.

Her Conception of the Theme. "No, none of them are specimens of my work," said Mrs. Stetson. "All these lovely things were painted by my teacher, whose studio I share. But I would love to show you my pictures. I have been very fortunate in painting to please. Everything I have done has met with approval, and that is something to be proud of. Have you seen my 'Lion's Bride'? It is surprising to us all to note the attention which it has attracted. You know the story, of course? Yes? Then I need not tell it, but I choose for my subject the least harrowing of all the tales that are told, the version that permits the bride to come to life. Of course my picture is in one sense a copy, although the legend permits of just our handling of the theme. The conception of my own rendition is original with me. It would have done you good to watch the little newsboys the other day as they marched through the avenue on the occasion of the waifs' picnic, when they stopped to look at that picture. Poor little lads, I suppose no subject an artist could have chosen would have so appealed to their tastes." Mrs. Stetson's work in the World's Fair was among the most highly commended and admired. An ideal head of a Neapolitan boy crowned with flowers, as also a beautiful pastel of fruits in Hort cultural hall, were pronounced among the choicest exhibits in the line. A perfect epicure in her taste for beautiful things, Mrs. Stetson bids fair to rank with the foremost of Chicago's artists, although she is comparatively new in this field.

Home Seekers' Excursion.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas Ry., will sell excursion tickets on September 25 and October 9 at greatly reduced rates to all points in Texas, to Eddy, New Mexico and Lake Charles, La. Good returning twenty days from date of sale. For further information address H. A. Cherrie, 12 Rookery Bldg., Chicago, Ill.; T. B. Cookerly, 503 Locust street, Des Moines, Ia.; or James Barker, G. I. and T. Agt., St. Louis, Mo.

The John McCaffrey of Chicago who left an estate valued at $500,000 to children whose whereabouts are unknown to him, once owned and operated the big Wheeler farm near Whitewater.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

MOST PERFECT MADE.

A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD

You Tasty and Economical Buyers

compare our

50c Four= in= Hands AND Tecks

with those sold by our competition.

J. L. FORD & SON.

"the people to buy from."

One door E. Merchants' & Mechanics' Bank.

TO ORDER... Suits and Over-coats. New Stock.. Of Woolens

For Fall and Winter.

Work First Class. Prices Moderate.

J. D. HOLMES,

Tailor and Hatter, on the Bridge.

N. B.—Mr. F. H. Zalke, the new cutter gets up fine garments.

BRIEF BITS OF HUMOR.

Generalship.

"The Clantys does be slow returnin' phwat they borry," said Mrs. Dolan.

"Yis," replied Mrs. Rafferty. "O' niver will forgit the throuble O' had gettin' back the flat-irons O' lint 'em wanst out o' the kindness av me heart."

"An' how did yez git 'em?"

"O' sint my by Teddy to holler out that the Clantys wouldn't be in this country on'y Saint Pathrick chased the snakes out av Oireland. Thin the oirons cem over the back finee fasht enough. All Tiddy had to do wor to dodge 'em."—Washington Star.

A Generous and Thoughtful Wife.

The Husband—Well, dearest, did you get your hat?

The Wife (just home from shopping)—Yes, darling, and it is a beauty, and, just think, it cost only $22. I am ever so much obliged to you for the money, and for the kindness I have bought you a new necktie. It is very pretty, isn't it?

The Husband—It is, indeed, darling. What did you pay for it?

The Wife (blushing)—It isn't the cost that make a thing valuable, you know, but the spirit in which it is given. It cost 17 cents.—N. Y. Press.

The Milkman's Daughter.

"Did you attend the wedding of Miss Chalkley? You know her father is a milkman, and she married his partner," said Col. Yerger to Judge Penny-bunker.

"No, I didn't go," replied the judge; "but I heard it was a grand affair. There was a great deal of pomp about it."

"A great deal of pomp? I should think there would be more pomp than pomp about it."—Tammany Times.

A MODEST REQUEST.

"Will you have the kindness, my dear sir, to quarrel with me? I'm real anxious to find out whether the dog I have just bought knows how to bite."—Fliegende Blaetter.

Utterly Incompetent.

Clara—I understand you have a new president for your sewing society?

Cora—Yes; the former one was incompetent.

"You don't say!"

"Yes; she said she couldn't understand what any of us said when we all talked together."—Yonkers Statesman.

Matrimonial Note.

Wife—What do you suppose is the reason there are no marriages in Heaven?

Husband—You stupid goose, it is to offset the fact that there is no heaven in marriage.—Alex Sweet, in Texas Sittings.

Cheated.

Cusmo—See that fellow across the street? He cheated me of twenty thousand dollars.

Friend—How?

Cusmo—By refusing me his daughter's hand.—Truth.

Practical.

Brother Will—Why don't you accept Jack? He is the Harvard record breaker in the high vault.

Sister Sall—Yes, but I prefer the record breaker in the safety deposit kind.—N. Y. World.

When Woman Votes.

Mrs. Franclyn Wilnot—I shall never speak to her again—the mean thing!

Mrs. T. William Franchise—What did she do?

Mrs. Wilnot—She challenged my vote!—Puck.

A Don't About It.

Mabel—That Mr. Brown is a perfect bear.

Maud—Oh, do you think so? He hasn't hugged me once.—Arkansas Traveler.

The Facts in the Case.

She—Darling, if I were poor would you love me as much?

He—No, dear. I wouldn't have as much time on my hands then.—Brooklyn Life.

Easily Explained.

Henderson—Why did they turn Skinner out of the church?

Williamson—He sold the pastor a horse.—Life.

A Common Cause.

Friend—What was the cause of that boating accident?

Waterman—Too full.

"The boat too full?"

"No, the fellers in it."—N. Y. Weekly.

This Is the Way Everyone Feels.

Jones—Mr. Cady, where do you stand when your friends get up a tariff discussion?

Mr. Cady—Nowhere. I run.—Chicago Record.

Ye Family Filter.

Little Dick—Is this the filtered water?

Little Dot—I don't know. Taste it.

"It tastes like old straw."

"Yes, that's filtered."—Good News.

The Preferable Metaphor.

She—And don't you concede marriage to be an important step?

He—Oh, more—it's a serious slip, you know.—Life.

Answered the Purpose.

The woman whistled to stop the car. And it stopped short as she did it. But it wasn't the whistle, but more by far the face that she made, that did it.

—Judge.

SHE WAS ONLY INQUIRING.

In Exercising Her Woman's Privilege She Met no Warm Reception.

A curious looking woman went into one of the biggest dry goods stores and looked around curiously. She was just as curious, too, as she looked.

"Do you live in town?" said she to the young lady clerk.

"Yes," was the reply.

"Who owns this store?"

"That gentleman," said the clerk, pointing to the proprietor.

"Is he good to you?"

"Well, not any more than he is to the rest," said the clerk, blushing.

"You married?" said the woman.

"No," said the clerk.

"No thought of it 'mebbe?"

"Well, yes, I have thought of it."

"Got a gentleman, I hope," said the curious woman, as she handled and inspected the goods she was buying.

"How old be you, might I ask, if it ain't an impertinence? I don't know it's any o' my business," she added apologetically, "but I'm awfully interested in mos' folks. I think it's our 'uty to get as well acquainted as we can in this world. By the way," she continued, "I'm cur'us to know where you get your dresses made. I want to hev a new dress and I'm bound to hev this one in style. How much did it cost ye?"

The young lady, if we got the story right, was by this time in a regular state of mind and she answered as best she could.

The answers were evidently satisfactory, but there is a limit to the patience even of a dry goods clerk, for when the woman said to her:

"Is that your engagement ring?"

the little lady behind the counter flashed out in proper resentment:

"None of your business, madam!"

"Shoo," said the curious woman, without any other apparent resentment.

"You needn't be so tetchy. Hope I hain't seemed meddlin' I didn't mean to be."

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

From Central Asia.

The mysterious ancestry of the pre-historic tribes of Mexico and of Central America has frequently been ascribed to far off Polynesia; but now, for the first time, a seemingly convincing proof of this theory has been presented. The native calendar, found only in Central America and the southern half of Mexico, has been identified, by Professor Cyrus Thomas with the calendar of the Polynesians and Melanesians. Hitherto it had been thought to be without a parallel in the entire world. With the single exception of the division of the year in the native American calendar into months of twenty days, the two systems agree in every essential feature. The symbols for the various days, such as the shark, wind, rain, dog and lizard are found to have been the same, at least linguistically. As the American tribes using the calendar embraced seven different linguistic stocks, the calendar could not have been an ethnic invention. Since the days of Quatrefores so much new light has been shed upon anthropology that it is now within probability that the dolmen bearers of Japan and of Peru and the pyramid builders of Central America belong to the same family as those of Central Asia.

And then they both smiled and they parted good friends, for this is a funny world and the curious woman doesn't know yet that she is impertinent.

BORT, BAILEY & COMPANY.

EVERY mail brings bundles of bills of the new goods that our buyer is sending from the eastern markets. Inside of the next ten days we shall have in our store rooms over $40,000 of New Dry Goods purchased for cash at the lowest figures Dry Goods every reached this country.

Never since we have been in business has our stock been reduced to as low an ebb as it was in July just passed. We have been increasing it rapidly with new goods at the low prices and in ten days when our stock will be complete in every department, there will be scarcely a thing that we cannot sell you cheaper than it could be bought for six months ago and still afford us a small profit. Our

New Laces

—AND—

Bead Trimmings

We expect to have on sale Monday. The prices will be very low.

We are now showing a FINE LINE of PATTERN DRESSES no two alike. COVERT Cloths from 50c to $1.50 a yard. All the new weaves in Black Dress Goods. Everything that is desirable in Black Silk. We will continue for two days to sell

$5 Chenille Curtains at $2.89.

$3.50 Chenille Table Spreads at $1.79.

We want to double our business. We will divide our profits. Come to us for Dry Goods.

BORT, BAILEY & COMPANY.

Move into the Sutherland Block on the Bridge Nov. 1.

Aim at Something, You May Hit Something.

It's folly to fire in innocent air when nothing's flying or when nine other chaps are shooting at the same game. We load our gun with truth, take careful aim and always hit something.

AN EASY SHOE

Is a great blessing. We've been in business long enough to know that a person won't get their foot pinched twice in the same place, that's why we're careful about fitting our patrons properly. You won't be "dead broke" all the time if you buy the following:

Ladies $5 fine hand turned French Don-Button Shoes $3.50

Gent's $5 fine Calf hand sewed Picadilly shoes, Blucners and Bals $3, $3.50

Fine $3 Calf Congress Bals $2

Fine $2 Calf Congress Bals $1

Men's Custom Crain Plow Shoes $1

Women's Serge Congress Shoes 50c

Women's Serge Slippers 25c

Men's Grain Plow Boots $1.50

Genuine calf Piccadilly Blucher's cus. made 2.50

We Carry The Finest and Best Line of School Shoe sin the World.

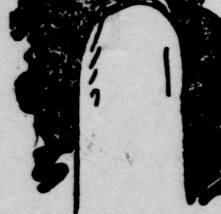

BROWN BROS. & LINCOLN.

THE TENDERFOOT'S FRIEND.

FULL BLOWN

and sweet as a rose—the young woman who tones up her system with Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a certain cure for all the ailments peculiar to the delicate organization of women. It is perfectly safe in any condition of the system and always reliable, regulating the delicate organs to perform their work painlessly. Women have hollow faces, dull eyes, hollow cheeks, and low spirits, when they are made miserable with disorders, derangements and weaknesses peculiar to their sex. Health is regained, after periods of dizziness, nervous prostration, pain and excitability, or other manifestations of derangement or displacement of the womanly organs, when the "Prescription" is used.

they are made miserable with disorders, derangements and weaknesses peculiar to their sex. Health is regained, after periods of dizziness, nervous prostration, pain and excitability, or other manifestations of derangement or displacement of the womanly organs, when the "Prescription" is used.

PIERCE Guar-antees a CURE OR MONEY RETURNED.

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE

THE OFFICIAL CITY PAPER

Entered at the postoffice at Janesville, Wisconsin, as second-class matter.

Terms of Subscription.
Daily edition, one year.....$6.00
Parts of a year, per month......50
Weekly edition, one year.....1.50
Special Advertising Notice.

We charge full rates for cards of thanks, obituary poems, financial statements of insurance companies and all other classes of items not considered news.

We publish free marriages, deaths and obituary notices, without poetry; also notices of church and society meetings.

We publish at half rates church and society notices of entertainments given for revenue.

OUR TICKET.

Governor—WILLIAM H. UPHAM, of Wood.
For Lieutenant Governor—EMIL BENSCH, of Manitowish.
Secretary of State—HENRY C. CASSON, of Vernon.

Treasurer—SEWELL A. PETERSON, of Baraboo.
Attorney General—W. H. MYLREA, of Marathon.
Superintendent of Public Instruction—JOHN Q. EMERY, of Dane.

Railroad Commissioner—DUNCAN J. McKENZIE, of Buffalo.
Insurance Commissioner—WILLIAM A. FRICKE, of Milwaukee.

Congressman—HENRY A. COOPER, of Racine.

FIRST ASSEMBLY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The republican convention of the First assembly district of Rock county, Wisconsin, will meet at Hanover, on Tuesday, September 11, 1894, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating an assemblyman for said district, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

E. F. HANSEN,
L. B. BEERE,
JOHN HUNTLEY,
First Assembly District Com.

SUPERINTENDENT CONVENTION

Notice is hereby given that a republican convention is called to meet at the court house in the city of Janesville on Friday, September 14, 1894, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for the office of superintendent of schools for the district composed of Clinton, Bradford, Johnson, Lima, Turtle, La Prairie, Milton, Harmony, Beloit, Rock, and the village of Clinton, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

R. W. CHEEVER,
CHAS. N. NYE.

Committee for the Second Superintendent District of Rock County.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT CONVENTION.

A republican convention will be held at Hanover on Tuesday September 12, at ten o'clock a. m. for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for County Superintendent of Schools.

P. C. WILDER, Chair.
H. C. TAYLOR,
C. S. CROW.

Committee for First Superintendent District, Rock county.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

70—Jerusalem was taken by the Romans.
1474—Aristotle, poet, born near Modena; died 1533.

1644—Francis Quarles, the leading poet just preceding Dryden, died.

1784—Mother Ann Lee, founder of the Shakers, died at Watervliet, N. Y.; born 1736.

1828—General George Crook born at Dayton, O.; died 1891.

1855—End of the siege of Sevastopol and retreat of the Russians.

1860—The Lady Elgin, mail steamer, lost in Lake Michigan with 300 passengers; Mr. Herbert Ingraham, member of parliament and proprietor of The Illustrated London News, was among the lost.

1869—William Pitt Fessenden, statesman and secretary of the treasury, died at Portland, Me.; born 1806.

1890—Beginning of the great strike of dock laborers and others at Southampton, England; much rioting and destruction followed.

REPUBLICAN MISSIONARIES.

A democratic representative from Ohio declared in the house just before the passage of the senate tariff bill that every woman who sees the bag of sugar she buys decreased one-third, will become a missionary against the democracy. He said that the great mass of the people who must count every penny of incomes not sufficient to enable them to live in half way decent comfort, will feel the tax on sugar and feel it bitterly. "There is not a housewife in the land," said Representative Johnson, "who will not feel that she is robbed by our democratic tariff reform when she finds that where she got three pounds of sugar under the McKinley bill she now, under the Gorman bill, for the same money, gets but two." It will be some little time yet before the housewives of the land begin to realize the effect of democratic legislation upon this prime necessity, but that they will be given an object lesson there can be no doubt. The duty does not go into effect until the first of next year, and there is no present excuse for the trust advancing the price of sugar, which is now higher than the average of last year. Moreover, that monopoly may be disposed to hold off an advance until after the November congressional elections, so as not to hurt the party which conceded the 40 per cent ad valorem on raw sugar which the trust dictated, but nothing can be more certain than that the advance will come. No democratic defender of making raw sugar dutiable, questions this. Not only will the consumers of sugar have to pay the 40 per cent duty, but so much in addition as the trust shall find it expedient to demand. It has the absolute control of the situation and may regulate production and price at its pleasure, and it is unnecessary to say that it will take the largest possible advantage of its opportunity. It may go slow, for prudential reasons, but whatever goal it has set for itself it will reach in time. As a consequence of this legislation, when the great sugar refining monopoly is ready to begin the extortion which the law allows it, instead of twenty pounds the American people will get but twelve or thirteen pounds of sugar for a dollar, as before the passage of the McKinley law, which annually saved to the consumers of sugar in the United States not less than $10,000,000.

RUSSIAN THISTLES SPREADING.

Wisconsin and Illinois people are becoming apprehensive of the introduction of the Russian thistle at the Chicago stock yards. Why not take measures to prevent its gaining a foothold? The Russian thistle is said to have already made its appearance at the South Omaha stock yards, in fact it was carried there in stock yards several sessions back. Unless something is done to stop it, it will soon be spreading from every stock yard in the country. This is the danger point in the thistle season, and if taken now, the pest, it is said, can be readily exterminated.

The Social Economist for September records its opinion that the Gorman tariff law will open our markets injuriously to foreign competition in jute, tin plates, woollens, clothing, cotton hosiery, iron and steel, salt and Canadian products. Its tendencies are to still further pound down our prices and wages, to increase the drain of gold, the hardships of the debtor class relatively to the creditor, and to prolong the condition of business prostration.

Figuring that about 40,000,000 gallons of spirits and whisky were withdrawn during the month of August to escape the payment of the increased internal revenue tax, that number being an estimate of the officials in the internal revenue department at Washington, the profit of 20 cents a gallon means no less than $8,000,000 clear gain to the whisky trust.

From present prospects the next house of representatives will have about as many new faces in it as did the last, which was remarkable for the number of members who had never had national legislative experience before.

It is feared that President Cleveland will require the services of an expert cabinet maker to again put together his cabinet, which has scattered to all directions of the compass and seems badly scared.

Neither Colorado nor Wyoming has as yet attempted to send a woman representative to either house of congress, notwithstanding the fact that woman suffrage is in full blast in both of these states.

With Governor Tillman in the United States senate, the cold tea dispensary of the senate restaurant, will unquestionably be reorganized on a profitable business basis.

"SWEET MARIE" WRITTEN IN PAIN.

Raymond Moore and How He Composed the Famous Little Ballad.

Raymond Moore, the famous balladist, is the author of that vastly popular song, "Sweet Marie," which is being sung, whistled and ground out on hand organs all over the country. Sweet Marie has already brought in $13,000 to the man who wrote both its words and music, Raymond Moore. And he confidently expects to make $20,000 out of the song after the returns from all the back counties are in. Mr. Moore receives eight cents royalty on each copy of the song that is sold. So 162,500 copies have been sold. If the composer makes $20,000, 250,000 copies will have been sold. There is a great responsibility in adding 250,000 Sweet Maries to the population of this song loving country. But Mr. Moore accepts the responsibility and is happy in the certainty that they have been welcomed from Portland, Oregon, to Portland, Maine.

Mr. Moore composed Sweet Marie last September. He was on his way across the continent from San Francisco with W. H. Cronkite, John Coleman, the dancer, and Otis Harland, the leading man in Hoyt's new play, A Black Sheep. To relieve the tedium of the journey these four played poker. It had cost Mr. Moore $300 or $400 to relieve the tedium, and he was beginning to feel slightly wearied, when he picked up a hand, and lo! there were three nines in it.

Mr. Moore with great promptness, raised the ante to come in and everybody came in. He drew one card and on careful inspection, found four nines in his five cards. The train was just then east of Denver, and Mr. Moore mentally determined to bet that hand as far as Chicago.

The other man called.
"Four nines," said Mr. Moore, reaching for the money.
"Four tens," said the other man, taking the money.

Mr. Moore, quite naturally, felt rather sad and pensive after all that. It was then the inspiration came to him, from which sprang Sweet Marie. He jotted down the music and elaborated the words. Sweet Marie was born.

— Sunday Will Be Sunny.

FORECAST: Tonight showers, probably fair on Sunday.

The temperature as recorded by S. C. Burnham & Co. during the last twenty-four hours was as follows:
7 a. m. . . . 70 above.
1 p. m. . . . 83 above.
Max. . . . 85 above.
Min. . . . 67 above.
Wind, south

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
Most Perfect Made.

BORED OF TRADE AT GENEVA.

Bathing Suit Market Affected by the Close of the Season.

As the season closes there are many regrets and the campers are long on faces. During the past two weeks the ladies' bathing costumes have an upward tendency and on last Saturday the bathers found they were short and tried to cover. At this time some of the other crowd tried their best to manipulate a squeeze, but there was a sharp reaction and the squeeze was a failure. Short ribs were in demand with but few on the market. Rye had an upward tendency, but when Seymour, of the Chicago Herald, arrived on the scene, it went down. December bathing suits were freely offered with no takers. No. 1 white pants, to go to store, on account of the cheat in them, were thrown on the market as no grade.—Lake Geneva News.

ANOTHER BARN WAS DESTROYED

Lightning Caused a Fire a Short Distance South of Beloit.

The immense barn of Fred Renschle, south of Beloit, was struck by lightning last night, and consumed by fire, together with four horses and a large quantity of hay and some farm machinery.

Not a Member of the Trust.

Trusts or combines are always organized for the benefit of the parties belonging. Suppose every furniture house in Janesville belonged to a certain organization to hold the price of furniture up to a certain point. This would be a trust, and you would have to pay the price asked or go out of the city for your furniture. We are happy to say we belong to no trust or combine. We buy our furniture where we can get it the cheapest. Because we won't join hands and hold the prices up the others have no use for us. We are not to blame because we can buy for the least money. We discount all prices named by the other high priced concerns.

FRANK D. KIMBALL.

While the Explosion Goes on.

Our awning fell a short time ago and broke one of our large plate glass windows. The window was full of goods, perhaps $75 worth. We are now kicking ourselves because we did not advertise a great damage sale, thousands of dollars worth of neckties etc., damaged. But perhaps it should have been broken by boiler explosion.

T. J. ZIEGLER.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
World's Fair Highest Award.

MISCELLANEOUS.

COLLATERAL LOAN BANK, 15 West Milwaukee street. The largest and most reliable in Janesville. Any amount of money to loan on diamonds, watches and jewelry, at low rates of interest. All business strictly confidential. Unredeemed pledges for sale. Harris, Your Uncle.

FOR SALE OR RENT—A very desirable residence of seven rooms, on Milton avenue near by home. The house is practically new and in most complete order. City water. Price low, terms liberal. Alex. Graham.

FOR RENT CHEAP—A nicely furnished room, 2 blocks from the Myers house on East Milwaukee street. Address "Pansy", care Gazette.

WANTED

WANTED—Boys and Girls who wish to make money when out of school, send name and we will tell you how. No money is wanted. N. STAYNER & CO., Providence, R. I.

WANTED—A home for a girl twelve years old next December, in a good family. Party on farm preferred. Call or address Mrs. C. Van Tassel, Clinton Junction, Wis.

MONEY to loan on good mortgage security. C. E. Bowles.

WANTED—To exchange a good family horse for a good cow. O. D. ROWE.

AGENTS—make $5 a day. Greatest kitchen utensil ever invented. Retail 25 cents. 2 to 6 sold in every house. Sample, postage paid, free. FORSHEE & McMAKIN, Cincinnati, O.

WANTED—Situation by widow lady, with a boy of school age, as house keeper in small family. Enquire at 59 Madison St.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Desirable rooms, either furnished or unfurnished, 10 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR RENT—A first class house and barn in the second ward, centrally located, and in perfect repair. Enquire at Gazette office.

FOR RENT—A house of five rooms, 160 Prospect avenue.

FOR RENT—A new house with all modern improvements, in a desirable location. Dr. Sutherland.

FOR RENT—New house and barn in Forest Park. Bath room, hot water, cold water steam heat. Apply at this office.

FOR RENT—A house of five rooms, No. 160 Prospect avenue.

FOR RENT—Medium size house, between High and Academy streets.

FOR RENT—A six-room house. Inquire of A. D. Greiger, 255 Locust street.

DOG DAYS

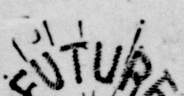

are nearly over. Fall is approaching fast.

We are ready for it with brand new goods in every line.

HATS! HATS!

Is our hobby this week. We are showing more black both in stiff and soft than many others who talk much louder. We have Genuine "ROELOFS" hat in stiff that is a world beater, both in quality and price. We will give you the same guarantee that you get with a much more expensive one. Our "Roelofs" has Roelofs' named stamped in every hat. We are looking for one to be sure and look for me, then you will be sure.

IN THE FUTURE

we will tell you about our tailoring department, some surprises await you. Do not make a purchase in any kind of clothing until you interview us. Our prices this fall will sell the goods. No persuasion needed.

KNEFF & ALLEN,
ORIGINAL TO 11.

EXPLODED CLOTHING.

M. GOODMAN, 153 W. Milwaukee.

Here's a conundrum: How is it that a little stock of Clothing worth say, $3221, becomes, when slightly damaged by another's misfortune a "Last Chance" stock, "Slightly damaged" value $10-000? We don't know the right answer to this; but it really would seem that the time to buy our clothes is now; for if there should be another explosion they would certainly be worth at least a hundred thousand. We never make any statements we can't "back up."

The Prices that We are Naming
We know are the Lowest.

We don't have big rent or clerk hire to pay, consequently we can save you that luxury.

Step in tomorrow and get acquainted. If you don't buy we won't order you out of the store. We will invite you to return.

M. GOODMAN,

CLOTHIER.....

Next to T. Mackin's Saloon.

153 W. MILWAUKEE.

A NEW STOCK OF CLOTHING.

The demand on us for Clothing has been so great lately that we have been compelled to put in a new stock. We bought it at very low figures so that we do not fear any competition. No one can undersell us on the same grade of goods. Every garment is made strictly first class. Just to show you how we can sell we name a few prices.

Boys Knee Pant Suits, sizes 4 to 14, good wearing, just the thing for school 98c a Suit.

Youth's 3 Piece Suits, sizes 10 to 18 $2.75 Up.

Men's Suits, Good Wearing Article, the best for the money 4.98.

BETTER GOODS IN PROPORTION.

Don't buy an article of clothing until you see what we have.

THE BEE HIVE

ASK FOR THE STORE.

53 W. MILWAUKEE.

DOCTOR TOOK A DOSE ALL BUT FATAL.

DR. C. A. MINER'S LIFE BARELY SAVED.

What He Supposed Was Ginger
Proved to be a Deadly Poison—Aid
For Fire Sufferers Sought By a
Church—Janesville Veterans at Pittsburg—Brief Local Notes.

DR. CLARK A. MINER made a mistake that was almost fatal last evening, the victim being himself. He was not feeling very well and opening his cabinet took down a bottle of what he supposed was Jamaica ginger. A moment after he realized that the potion was not Jamaica ginger but a powerful drug. Assistance was at once called, but the doctor was insensible before the assistance arrived, and the doctors worked over him some time before they succeeded in pumping the poison from his stomach and restoring him to consciousness.

I CANNOT impose upon my customers enough to make them pay for long, windy articles on theory and science, six nights in the week. Those are subjects I am unfamiliar with, so I content myself with short articles, occasionally, on "the price of furniture." I have the finest line of mahogany and birch parlor and chamber suites ever offered in Janesville. They cost but little more than the old style oak. Call and see those solid oak, silk tapestry, patent rockers made to order at $5. Couches made to order at any price you wish. I have a full line of upholstering material. W. H. Ashcraft, Furniture and Undertaking.

THERE will be a special treat for all men in the city at the Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. F. E. Anderson, state secretary of the Wisconsin Young Men Christian Association will be present and lead the meeting. The music will be especially good and a warm welcome to all men young and old. Remember the time from 3 to 4 p. m.

COLONEL GEORGE M. RANDALL'S experience in fighting Indians forms one of the interesting features of Major Kilmer's "Wild West" story on Page 2. Colonel Randall's modesty has kept his friends from learning of many of his exploits, but in army circles they are well known and form the subject of frequent admiring comment.

IN response to the appeal for help for the sufferers by forest fires the members of Christ church will be asked to contribute tomorrow morning. If clothing or provisions are contributed a card with names and address of donor should be placed on offertory plate and the articles will be called for on moving.

Invitations have just been issued for a series of select parties to be given by the Henrietta club at the Light Infantry armory. Those who attended the former parties given by this club, will remember what enjoyable affairs they were and will not fail to be present at the opening party Tuesday evening, September 18.

IN that line of dress goods at fifty cents for next Wednesday's sale mothers can find just what they want for the girl's school dresses. There will be many lengths less than a full dress pattern and yet enough to make a dress for the girls. Values are up to a dollar but the price only 50 cents. Archie Reid & Co.

DIVISIONS No. 1 and 3, Ancient Order of Hibernians, hold regular meetings tomorrow afternoon, Division No. 1 at Liberty hall, and No. 3 at Columbia hall.

ALL vases in the stock half price except cut glass and Royal Worcester. Cut glass of all kinds including Libbey's one-fifth off. Wheelock's removal sale.

Mrs. E. A. BRISTOL, who has been in the city several days visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles P. McLean, returned to her home in Chicago this morning.

JOSEPH ZOSTONILL, one of the opera tines in the Janesville cotton mills, went to Aurora, Ill., this morning, to accept a position in the cotton mills of that city.

Mrs. W. J. MCINTYRE and daughter went to Spencer, Iowa, Thursday evening, in response to a telegram announcing the severe illness of her son-in-law.

THE Riverside is doing business as usual. Goods left at office, or calls will receive prompt attention. As ever yours truly, C. A. Stanton.

ALEX. MCNAUGHTON, engineer on the Chicago & Northwestern railway, went to Woodstock with his wife this morning to spend Sunday.

MISS PHOEBE JENKINS, of Rockton, Ill., has been entertaining her cousin, Miss Gertrude Clement, of this city, for the past week.

A NICE spring chicken for Sunday dinner would be just the thing. Dunn Bros. will have some beauties in the morning.

CAMPBELL and Yorke, of the Detroit, are two of the fastest fielders in the country. They will play here Tuesday.

Mrs. C. A. HUNT will open her school on Tuesday, September 18. Her rooms are 103 Pleasant street.

C. D. EVANS went to Pittsburg this morning to attend the National Encampment of the Grand Army.

AN invitation party will be given at Crystal Springs park, on Thursday evening of next week.

GEORGE BUCHHOLZ has entered the state university for a three year's law course.

OUR men's 82 congress and lace is a beauty. Its a fitter, just you try it.

Its all solid and made to wear and fit the times as well as the feet. Brown Bros., & Lincoln.

THE batting order of the Detroit league team Tuesday will be: Everett ss., Campau lf., Earle, rf., Raymond, 3b, Dewey lb., Glenalvin, 2b., Yorke cf., Jansen c., Gale, Borchers or Pears, p. The Athletics will line up as follows: Wilbur lf., Birmingham ss., Dixon c., Morrissey lb., Mills 2b., Werner 3b, Broughton rf., Connors cf., McGinley, p.

YOUNG People's Rectory club of Trinity church will give the last of the series of moonlight excursions on the Steamer Columbia, Tuesday, September 11. Tuckwood's orchestra with harp accompaniment will furnish music. A good time for all.

PARTIES desiring pasturage where there is good running water, can be accommodated on the Warner farm at Emerald Grove, where there is pasturage for thirty or forty head of stock. Apply to George Hanthorn, administrator, Milton avenue.

TRINITY CHURCH—Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity, holy communion, 7:30 a. m., matins and sermon, 10:30 a. m., Sunday school 12. Meeting of the brotherhood of St. Andrew 3 p. m. Evensong and sermon, 7:30 p. m.

WHILE boilers are exploding and ruining thousands of dollars worth of goods, we are exploding prices. Come and get a suit or overcoat cheaper than ever before. M. Goodman, 153 West Milwaukee street.

YOUNG married people and all others who desire to own their homes, should take advantage of the bargains and easy terms offered by the C. S. Graves Land Co. for the best land in the state.

J. F. SWEENEY of the Grand went to Chicago today to meet Mrs. Sweeney, who is on her way home from the east, where she has been for the past month or six weeks.

FOR sale at a bargain.—A four-year old bay mare, sixteen hands high. Weight about 1150 pounds. Sound and gentle. Inquire of W. J. McIntyre at the court house.

NICE, large No. 2 nut coal $5.25 per ton, delivered. Just as large as half of the nut that is being sold. Come and see it. Janesville Coal Co. J. H. Gateley, Manager.

DECORATED China plates, saucers, berry dishes, sugar and creams and many other novelties on one-half counter during removal sale. Wheelock's crockery store.

WE are taking care of all laundry work the same as usual. Don't take it any other place, we guarantee just as good work as ever. Riverside Steam Laundry.

HAVE you read the conundrum we proposed in our large advertisement? No one seems to answer it. Perhaps another explosion is required. M. Goodman.

WE will guarantee The Flower of Japan for fifty cents a pound good as most teas sold in Janesville at seventy-five cents a pound. Grubb Bros.

WHENEVER your tea does not taste right, you can be certain that it did not come from Grubb Bros., and is not The Flower of Japan.

THE Athletics could, as they stand now, enter any of the minor leagues and hold their own. Look for a fast game Tuesday.

REMEMBER we continued our closing out sale of all summer goods until September 15. Better come at once. T. P. Burns.

WE would not be surprised if the Athletics beat the Detroiters next Tuesday. An even bet is safe.

SOME great bargains in ladies' and gents' fast black cotton hosiery is to be found at T. P. Burns' closing out sale.

WILLIAM MERRILL of Milwaukee, is the guest of his brother, Hon. Hiram Merrill.

LARGE line of gents' percale shirts, laundered, to be closed out cheap at T. P. Burns' closing out sale.

SEATS can be secured at the box office Tuesday morning, for "Ezra Kendall."

A FEW of the new dress goods are in the center window. Archie Reid & Co.

Do not take your work elsewhere, as I want your patronage. C. A. Stanton.

Mrs. M. POWERS went to Norwood Park this morning.

DRESS goods sale next Wednesday. Archie Reid & Co.

BASE ball Tuesday. All the fans are delighted.

C. S. GRAVES is in Chicago today.

A List Fit For a King.

Mason's quart jars, four cents each. Mason's two quart jars, five cents each.

Good Michigan peaches, thirty cents a basket.

New York blue plums, thirty-nine cents a basket, same size as peach baskets.

Concord grapes, six pounds for twenty-five cents.

Delaware grapes, five pound basket for twenty-five cents.

Finest celery you ever saw.

A lot of good bananas, ten cents a dozen.

Fine New York pears, for canning. Coconut taffy, fifteen cents a pound.

Peanut taffy, fifteen cents a pound. Molasses taffy, fifteen cents a pound. Cream taffy, fifteen cents a pound. Made today. GRUBB BROS.

Moonlight Excursion.

The steamer Mayflower will give her last moonlight excursion Tuesday night, leaving her dock at 6:30 p. m., returning at 9 p. m. Fare round trip, 70 cents.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

AID FOR THE NORTH IS GIVEN FREELY

JANESVILLE COMMITTEE BE-GINS ITS WORK TODAY.

Wagons Will Patrol Every Street in the City on Monday, Gathering Clothing and Supplies—Ten Men Appointed by Mayor Thoroughgood to Direct the Work.

The relief committee appointed at the citizens meeting last evening held a meeting in the council chamber this afternoon. James A. Denniston was elected chairman and Fred L. Clemons secretary. F. S. Winslow stated that $229 had already been subscribed in cash, $109 of which had been paid, and a canvass had been made.

The committee has secured the Jeffris store on Milwaukee street bridge which will be opened on Monday as a supply store for the purpose of receiving any articles that may be donated for the northern fire sufferers. It was also decided to make a general canvass of the city on Monday. Teams will be sent through the several streets of the city, a committeeman will go in advance of the teams soliciting aid, and the teams will pick the articles up.

The arrangements will be announced in all the churches tomorrow, and on Monday the committee will roll up their sleeves and go to work in earnest. The supplies will at once be forwarded north. The committee will hold another meeting on Monday evening, at the supply store.

Mayor Thoroughgood presided at the meeting of citizens called to offer aid to the northern fire sufferers. C. S. Jackman was elected secretary. Mayor Thoroughgood stated the object of the meeting to be to formulate some plan for united effort in collecting money and supplies, and it was decided to appoint a committee, of two from each ward, the committee to have full power to act. The mayor thereupon appointed the following committee:

First Ward—J. P. Baker and James A. Denniston.

Second Ward—Fred L. Clemons and Fred Crouse.

Third Ward—F. S. Winslow and George M. McKey.

Fourth Ward—Henry Hemming and Charles H. Blay.

Fifth Ward—John F. Sweeney and B. H. Baldwin.

MR. WHITEHEAD WAS ELOQUENT

His Speech Nominating Will A. Jackson Won Much Praise.

There were some stirring speeches during the convention, but the one most praised, perhaps, was that of John M. Whitehead, who held D. H. Billing's proxy. M. G. Jeffris had just closed a brief speech in favor of H. S. Sloan. Mr. Whitehead said:

"MR. CHAIRMAN: I would not detract one word from all that has been said in favor of the young man whose name has just been presented to this convention. Born and bred to his profession, he is worthy of the commendation of the gentleman who has nominated him for district attorney; but I ask the privilege of presenting the name of another young man whom I deem worthy of the honor of this nomination. He is the son of an eminent member of the bar, and has been trained from his youth to the profession of law. He has enjoyed the advantages of the great University of Madison, and is accustomed to the friendly rivalries that exist in our institutions of learning. Whatever the action of this convention may be, I am persuaded that the strong friendship which exists between these two young men will suffer no interruption nor the fidelity of either to the party any abatement. I speak for my friend, for the son of my friend; for a young man whom I have known as a boy in his home, as a student, as a business man. His industry, ability and integrity are the established features of his character."

What is Ahead of It.

"MR. Chairman, you stated when you took the chair, that you had been engaged in the service of the republican party and in regular attendance upon its conventions, for upwards of thirty years, and I will ask you whether in all these years, you have known any other convention to have before it such a profusion of such excellent material from which to select its candidates. These gentlemen who sit here at my right, whose heads have grown grey in past years of faithful work have been with you the witnesses of great events, have been associated with great men and have participated in the great and glorious achievements of the party. But the eyes of the party are now upon the future, and the young men are being selected who are to lead in the years to come. We are seeking out the young men who shall rightly improve the magnificent opportunities of the future. They are among us and are in fellowship with you and with those who with you have accomplished historic deeds."

Its Glory Does Not Fade.

"I have been an interested observer of the course of the republican party in this service for many years. From other states and societies, from the midst of surroundings altogether antagonistic to the principles of the republican party I have beheld the flag of its work and its workers. From the quietude of the lip I have lived in Rock county for the past dozen years. I have come closer to its shrines and been more deeply impressed with its spirit and its form."

and have rejoiced continually in the extent of the privileges inherited by the young men who are remembered in its ranks.

"Gentlemen of the convention, one of these worthy young men, whose name it gives me pleasure to present to you today, and whose claims I ask you carefully to consider is Will A. Jackson of Janesville. I nominate him for the office of district attorney."

ARE CLOSED ON A MORTGAGE.

E. J. Kent & Co's Store in the Temporary Possession of the Savings Bank.

The store of E. J. Kent & Co., 122 West Milwaukee street, was closed this morning on chattel mortgage proceedings, the establishment being in temporary possession of the Merchants' & Mechanics' Savings bank and others. The firm of E. J. Kent & Co. is doing a general business in painting, oils and glass. The firm is composed of E. J. Kent and William F. Airis, who have been and are doing a good business. The Gazette is happy in stating that the closing of the establishment is only temporary, and that everything will be righted in a day or two. A Gazette reporter met M. G. Jeffris this morning, and in reply to questions, Mr. Jeffris said:

"The closing of the Kent store is only temporary. The failure amounts to almost nothing. Only about one thousand dollars is involved. The creditors are the savings bank, the Standard Oil Co. and St. Kent, a brother of E. J. Kent's. The little matter, I think, will be fixed up and Kent & Co. will continue in business just the same."

BELOIT HAPPY OVER APPLEBY.

Ovation to the City Marshal On His Return Last Night.

An ovation was tendered Nominee W. H. Appleby upon his arrival in Beloit last night. He was met at the depot by a large crowd of admirers, placed in a hack and preceded by a martial band, escorted to the mayor's office and later to the Goodwin House when impromptu speeches and congratulations were forced upon the next sheriff in profusion. Everybody in Beloit feels elated and "Billy" will carry the city by a rousing majority.

DEATH OF MRS. PHILLIP FOX.

A Sufferer for Twenty Years—Two Sons and Two Daughters Left.

Mrs. Anna E., wife of Dr. Phil Fox, formerly of this city, passed to rest at the family residence in Madison, Thursday evening at 11:25. Mrs. Fox has been an invalid for more than twenty years, and although her death was not unexpected, the end came sooner than was expected. Mrs. Fox leaves a husband, two sons, Dr. Phil B. and George William, and two daughters, Catherine and Mary Josephine.

Ezra Kendall's New Play.

The well known eccentric comedian, Ezra Kendall, will appear at the opera house on Wednesday night in his latest success, "The Substitute," still portraying the character of an old countryman. The play is made up of four acts, three of which are laid on a farm in the interior of New York state, and one act in the city of Buffalo. "Simon Pure," the substitute, the character which Mr. Kendall portrays, is an old York state farmer, with all the entertaining personalities which enhanced the charm of former creations in this line. A special feature of the entertainment will be the introduction of appropriate specialties and new and bright music.

A Dress Goods Sale.

It's about time to think about your new fall dress, and to help you make up your mind we announce a special dress goods sale for next Wednesday, September 12, at which time we will show all the latest in fall fabrics together with the trimmings. Covert cloths, small checks and mixtures, silk and wool effects are favorites, and will all be here. One item of interest will be a big line of goods at the uniform price of fifty cents a yard; many pieces in it that were a dollar, but it is a price to close many lines, and offers exceptional advantages. Wednesday, the 12th, is the day.

ARCHIE REID & Co.

Ball Bearing Buggies.

New ideas are ever being put forth. The latest to be sprung in Janesville, is a ball bearing buggy at the Janesville Carriage Works. The axle is made exactly the same as a bicycle, with the regulation number of balls. It needs oiling very seldom and will run much smoother than the old style. A buggy with a separate axle and hub is on exhibition there, and can be seen at the fair grounds all next week, where the Janesville Carriage Works will have a very large display.

An Accommodating Bicycle.

A double entry bicycle has been on the streets most of the day. It was ridden by a lady and gentleman and consisted of two bicycles coupled together, side by side, so that any one could ride them, and have much pleasure. They are the latest and are for sale by J. Shuler, 5 Court street, where all kinds of bicycle repairing is done, and where one can find a full stock of bicycle supplies, also the famous Andrae wheel.

Anarchist Explodes a Bomb.

TURIN, Sept. 8.—In the cafe San Carlo an anarchist, Salero, exploded a bomb which created much consternation but injured no one. Salero was arrested.

Comte De Paris Is Dead.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—A dispatch from Paris announces the death of the Comte de Paris, head of the house of Orleans, and claimant of the French throne.

FOUGHT FOR $300 WITH A BURGLAR

DR. HENRY PALMER'S STRUG-GLE AT 3 A. M.

Called From His Bed By a Stranger, He is Attacked and Thrown While Another Thief Carries Away His Clothing—Valuable Plunder Drops Unnoticed.

Dr. Henry Palmer's plucky fight with a burglar at 3 o'clock this morning saved him $300. The doctor's experience began about 11 o'clock last night when the door bell rang violently. Mrs. Palmer was about to go to the door when the doctor stepped forward. He opened the door but no body was to be seen. What followed later made it seem probable that the caller was waiting to find the doctor alone.

Dr. Palmer sleeps alone in a room opening into the front hallway. He was called up by Milo Wood about 2:30 o'clock and half an hour after Wood left, the bell rang again. A man stepped up as the doctor opened the door.

"Is this Dr. Palmer?" he asked.

"Yes, sir."

Instantly the doctor was clutched about the neck and dragged forward. A savage fight followed. Taken by surprise the doctor was thrown on his back, but "turned" the man, as wrestlers say, and hit him twice in the face. The blows were heavy ones and the man released his hold, twisted himself free and fled.

The gas in the bedroom was lighted and Dr. Palmer stepped back to get his clothing.

His coat and trousers were missing. In the coat was a pocketbook containing $300 collected during the day for the Victor factory pay roll. The search for the missing garments was not a long one. Both were found in the back yard with pockets inside out. Just outside the front door, however, another find was made. There lay the pocketbook with its valuable contents undisturbed.

The man who held Dr. Palmer evidently did so to give his partner time to run past into the bedroom, gather up the clothing and run. Without doubt it was the doctor's vigorous resistance that kept the dropping of the wallet from being noticed by the thieves.

The electric lights go out at 3 o'clock, and it was very dark so recognition was impossible. The job was evidently planned by somebody familiar with Dr. Palmer's habits, however, and acquainted with the fact of his collecting quite a sum of money.

Royal Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

A cream of tartar baking powder Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest United States Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO 108 Wall St., N. Y.

MYERS GRAND,
WM. H. STODDARD, Lessee and Mgr.
Opening Attraction

Ezra Kendall

In his great comedy success

"The Substitute."

PRICES—25c, 50c, 75c. Box office open Tuesday morning.

How It Hurts

our competitors for us to sell so many goods, but the people will buy and we will sell

Crockery,
Glassware,
Tinware,
Notions
AND Jewelry.

SAY

call and see our patent covered glass jars, only 4 cents each.

THE HUB,

J. B. GREEN & CO., Proprietors,
103 W. Milwaukee Street.

WE

sell you an elegant Toilet Soap at 10c, 3 for 25c, The Lemon Juice Complexion Soap. It is equal and superior to a great many 25c soaps.

Smith's Pharmacy.

NEW GOODS

—AT—

THE FAIR,

Cor. Milwaukee & River.

Fancy China,
Glassware,
Crockery,
Tinware,
Graniteware,
Lamps,
Notions, &c.

Call and see them

H. W. COON, Prop.

The Most Complete Line Of PIANOS AND ORGANS

in Rock County can be found at TROW MUSIC COMP'Y.,

BELOIT, WISCONSIN.

Weber, Wheelock, Schubert, Conover, Kingsbury and Stuyvesant Pianos.

Call or write for prices. See us at the fair.

TROW MUSIC COMPANY, Beloit, Wis.

WM. W. MENZIES

Pianoforte and Reed Organ Tuning
Repairing and Regulating. Prices Reasonable Satisfaction Guaranteed. Leave all orders with

S. C. Burnham & Co.

TONSorial Parlors.

3 North Academy St.

LADIES' and CHILDREN'S HAIR DRESSING

A SPECIALTY.

Jacob Ohlweiler, Prop.

See the new.....

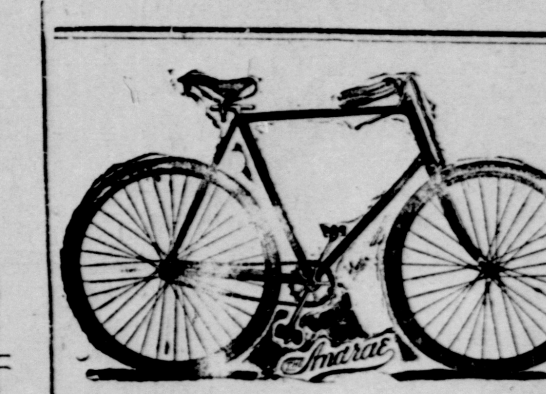

AERIAL PATTERNS

—IN—

Solid Silver Forks and Spoons at

D. W. KOLLE'S,

West Side Jeweler and Music Dealer

Ride a Wheel and be Healthy.

The celebrated Andrae Wheels are World Beaters.

Took leading prizes at the state meet at Kipon, Wis., August 7 and 8. Nine medals prove their merits at this meet. Call for catalogue and points about the genuine bicycle and best wheel made. You can't make a mistake in purchasing a wheel from us.

J. C. SHULER,
[No. 5 Court Street.

ce. MOR. | WIRELESS AND LIQUOR

MANY GRAVEL TRAINS AT AFTON

Business Rushing on the Madison Division Programme of the I. O. G. T.

AFTON, Sept. 7.—The C. & N. W. Co. have begun drawing gravel from their great Beloit pit north, and these trains in addition to those usually run are making things quite lively on the Madison division. Agent J. W. Searles reports business as "rushing." A program is being prepared for presentation at the I. O. G. T. meeting Tuesday evening. Preaching service at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening as usual. "Excuses" will be the subject of the morning discourse, and "A Pure Life" that of the evening. All are cordially invited to attend. Robert J. Eddy, Arthur S. Waite, Elvira J. Antisdel and Rose B. Eldredge were sent as delegates to represent the Afton Baptist church in the association gathering at Beloit. Attorney George L. Treat, of Alexandria, Minn., came down Tuesday for a brief visit with Afton relatives. George R. Charles is in Chicago combining business with sight-seeing. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Miller will become residents of Afton at a future day. Mr. Miller has purchased the Sims farm and will soon break ground for the erection of a new dwelling thereon. Mrs. J. C. Eddy is visiting her parents at Evansville. Rock township was represented in the assembly convention at Clinton last Tuesday by W. J. Miller and J. B. Humphrey, the former of whom was made a member of the committee on credentials, while the latter served as secretary of the convention.

WEEK'S NEWS FROM PORTER.

Child of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Casey Dead—Personal Notes.

PORTER, Sept. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Casey are mourning the loss of their baby girl, aged two months, who died of cholera infantum Sunday morning. The funeral was held on Monday, services being held in St. Joseph's church, Edgerton, conducted by the Rev. J. F. Bowe, and the remains were laid to rest in Edgerton cemetery. Miss Lizzie Hartney, of Janesville, is the guest of Mrs. S. Dooley this week. O. Brace of Janesville township, seems to be a frequent visitor. What can be the attraction? Miss Maggie Connors of the town of Janesville commenced teaching her first term of school in the Hubbel district last Monday. Miss Minnie Hayward has returned from a six weeks visit with relatives in Minnesota and commenced school again in the Eagle district. Most of the farmers are cutting corn for feed for their cattle, the pastures all being so dry. Miss Ella McCarthy and brother were visitors in Burr-Oak recently.

Janesville Markets.

Range of prices in the local market. Quotations corrected daily by Frank Gray:

Flour—55c @ $1 per sack
WHEAT—Good to best quality 47c/50c.
RYE—In good request at 45c/48c per 60 lbs.
BARLEY—At 45c/50c; according to quality.
BEANS—At 35c/40c per bu.
CORN—Shelled 50 lbs. 45c/50c; ear, per 75 lbs., 47c/50c.
OATS—White At 27c/28c;
GROUND FEED—$1.10 per 100 lbs.
MEAL—$1 per 100 lbs. Bolted $1.50.
BRAN—80c per 100 lbs. $1.50 per ton
MIDDINGS—85c per 100, $17.00 per ton.
HAY—Timothy per ton, $7.00/8.00; other kinds $5.00/7.00.
BEANS—$1.20/1.65 per bushel.
STRAW—Per ton—$5.00/5.50.
CLOVER SEED—$5.00/5.50 per bushel.
TIMOTHY SEED—$1.75/2.00.
POTATOES—new 65 @ 75 per bushel
Wool—Salable at 12c/15c for washed and 7c/12c for unwashed.
BUTTER—Good supply at 19c/20c.
EGGS—10c @ 11c/doz.
HIDES—Green 20c/25c. Dry 5c/6c.
FATS—Range at 25c/35c each.
POULTRY—Turkeys 10c/11c chickens 8c/10c.
LIVE STOCK—Hogs $5.00 @ $5.50 per 100 lbs.
Cattle 2.00 @ $3.25.

The Japanese Pile Cure is the only proper application for internal piles and is guaranteed in every case. Sold by Smith's Pharmacy.

The Doctor's Baking Powder.

DR. F. M. MORGAN.

I have no hesitancy in saying that the Hosford's Baking powder, in my opinion is the only baking powder that ought to be used in any family, its chemical constituents supplying what is wasted in the manufacture of flour, viz., the phosphates. Most powders contain alum and cream of tartar. One is valueless, the other positively harmful to the system.

Harvest Excursions.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. Co. will sell harvest excursion tickets on September 11, 25 and October 9, 1894, over its own lines west and over other lines reaching through the Southern states, Southwestern states, western and northern states, at a one way fare plus $2.00 for the round trip, good for twenty days.

A Disputed Case.

Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused either by disease or neglect can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others can not. Only a specialist of experience can tell this. Professor Birkholz, the world-renowned German specialist of the Masonic Temple, Chicago, where those who desire a good head of hair or beard can consult him in private, and free of charge. After a thorough examination, which costs you nothing, we will tell you whether or not you may procure that trait of personal adornment so necessary to your existence, and if we find that the follicles are not all dead, we will treat you and guarantee the results or ask no pay. Call on or address Professor Birkholz, 1011 Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill.

Hand this notice to any first class druggist and he will get the Remedy for you at once, if he has not got it in stock.

For sale by Prentice & Evenson.

Low Rates to Pittsburg, Pa.

On account of the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic the Northwestern line will, on September 8 and 9, sell excursion tickets to Pittsburg, Pa., and return at exceedingly low rates; good for return passage until September 25, 1894, inclusive. For tickets and full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern railway.

BITS OF GLOVE HISTORY.

They Were First Worn With a Thumb and No Fingers.

A writer interested in the history of the wardrobe tells us that gloves were not known in England until near the close of the tenth century and were then worn with a thumb and no finger, like mittens. They were larger in every way than they needed to be, and wondrously embroidered and starred with jewels. No gloves were finer than those of the clergy. They were mostly of white silk or linen, cunningly brodered and sometimes fringed with pearls. One ecclesiastic had a red silk pair, with the sacred monogram worked on the back, surrounded with a golden glory, and later on they had gloves to match their different vestments. In fact, gloves had departed from the primary idea of utility and become a decoration. They were too magnificent for common wear and were frequently carried in the hand or worn in the girdle. It was by the fine gloves his page had in his girdle that Cœur de Lion was betrayed on his way home from the crusade, and so fell into captivity. But already the glove was more than a mere bit of popery. The knight's mailed glove sheltered his hand. It became a sign of power, and when a gracious lord meant to signify his intention to protect a town he sent his glove as a sure sign of his willingness. The glove, too, was the token of defiance when one knight declared war against another, and to show his fealty to his mistress he bound her brodered glove to his helmet. Long gloves came in at the end of the seventeenth century. Nell Gwynne's gloves were a proverb for their beauty. All through this time gloves were prettily set off with lace, ribbons and fringe, although the fashion of the finer artistic embroidery of the middle ages was falling into disuse. The bare hand was deemed an offense, and the costliness of gloves defined their wearer's social position.

RED AND PINK COSTUME.

The illustration shows a gown of rose batiste trimmed with vivid red satin and white lace. This thoroughly French costume is completed by a green straw hat trimmed with red roses and white quills. JUDIE CHOLLET.

Avoiding Pain and Peril.

Defensive measures against the foe are ever adopted by a wise commander. You can be commander of the situation and strike a decisive blow at the start at that dangerous and relentless enemy, rheumatism, if attacked by it, by resorting in time to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which checks permanently the progress of a malady among the most obstinate, painful and possibly dangerous, against which medical skill and the resources of materia medica are arrayed. No evidence is more concurrent and convincing than that which proves that the Bitters neutralizes the rheumatic poison and checks its farther development in the system. For malaria and kidney trouble, dyspepsia, want of vitality, nervousness, liver complaint and constipation, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the leading remedy.

Bound to Have Something.

Little Boy—If you pray for a thing and don't get it, wot's that a sign of? Little Girl—That's a sign it isn't good for you.

Little Boy—Well, I've prayed for most everything and didn't get it. Guess I'll pray for a new catechism next time.

In a Fix.

Boy—Teacher, I wish you would make that girl quit winking at me. Teacher—Why don't you look somewhere else?

Boy—Because if I do, she'll wink at some other boy.—Texas Sittings.

Don't be talked into having an operation as it may cost you your life. Japanese Pile Cure is guaranteed to cure you. Sold by Smith's Pharmacy.

Men are made manly, the old made young and vigorous by Magnetic Nervine. Sold by Smith's Pharmacy.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children she gave them Castoria.

Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.

Newman Bros. Organs

ARE THE FINEST ORGANS MADE.

1. For use of high grade materials.
2. For excellent workmanship.
3. For responsive touch.
4. For good tone.
5. For easy action.
6. For a patented device known as Air Circulating Reed Cell, giving improved quality of tone.

For Sale by

H. F. NOTT.

57 West Milwaukee St., Janesville, Wis.

Fine . . .

Spring Chickens

FOR SUNDAY DINNER.

Received this morning. They are the genuine yellow legs, plump and fat. Dressed this evening. Also all the necessities that one requires when eating Fried Spring Chicken. For instance how would fried Spring Chicken with nice gravy browned

Sweet Potatoes

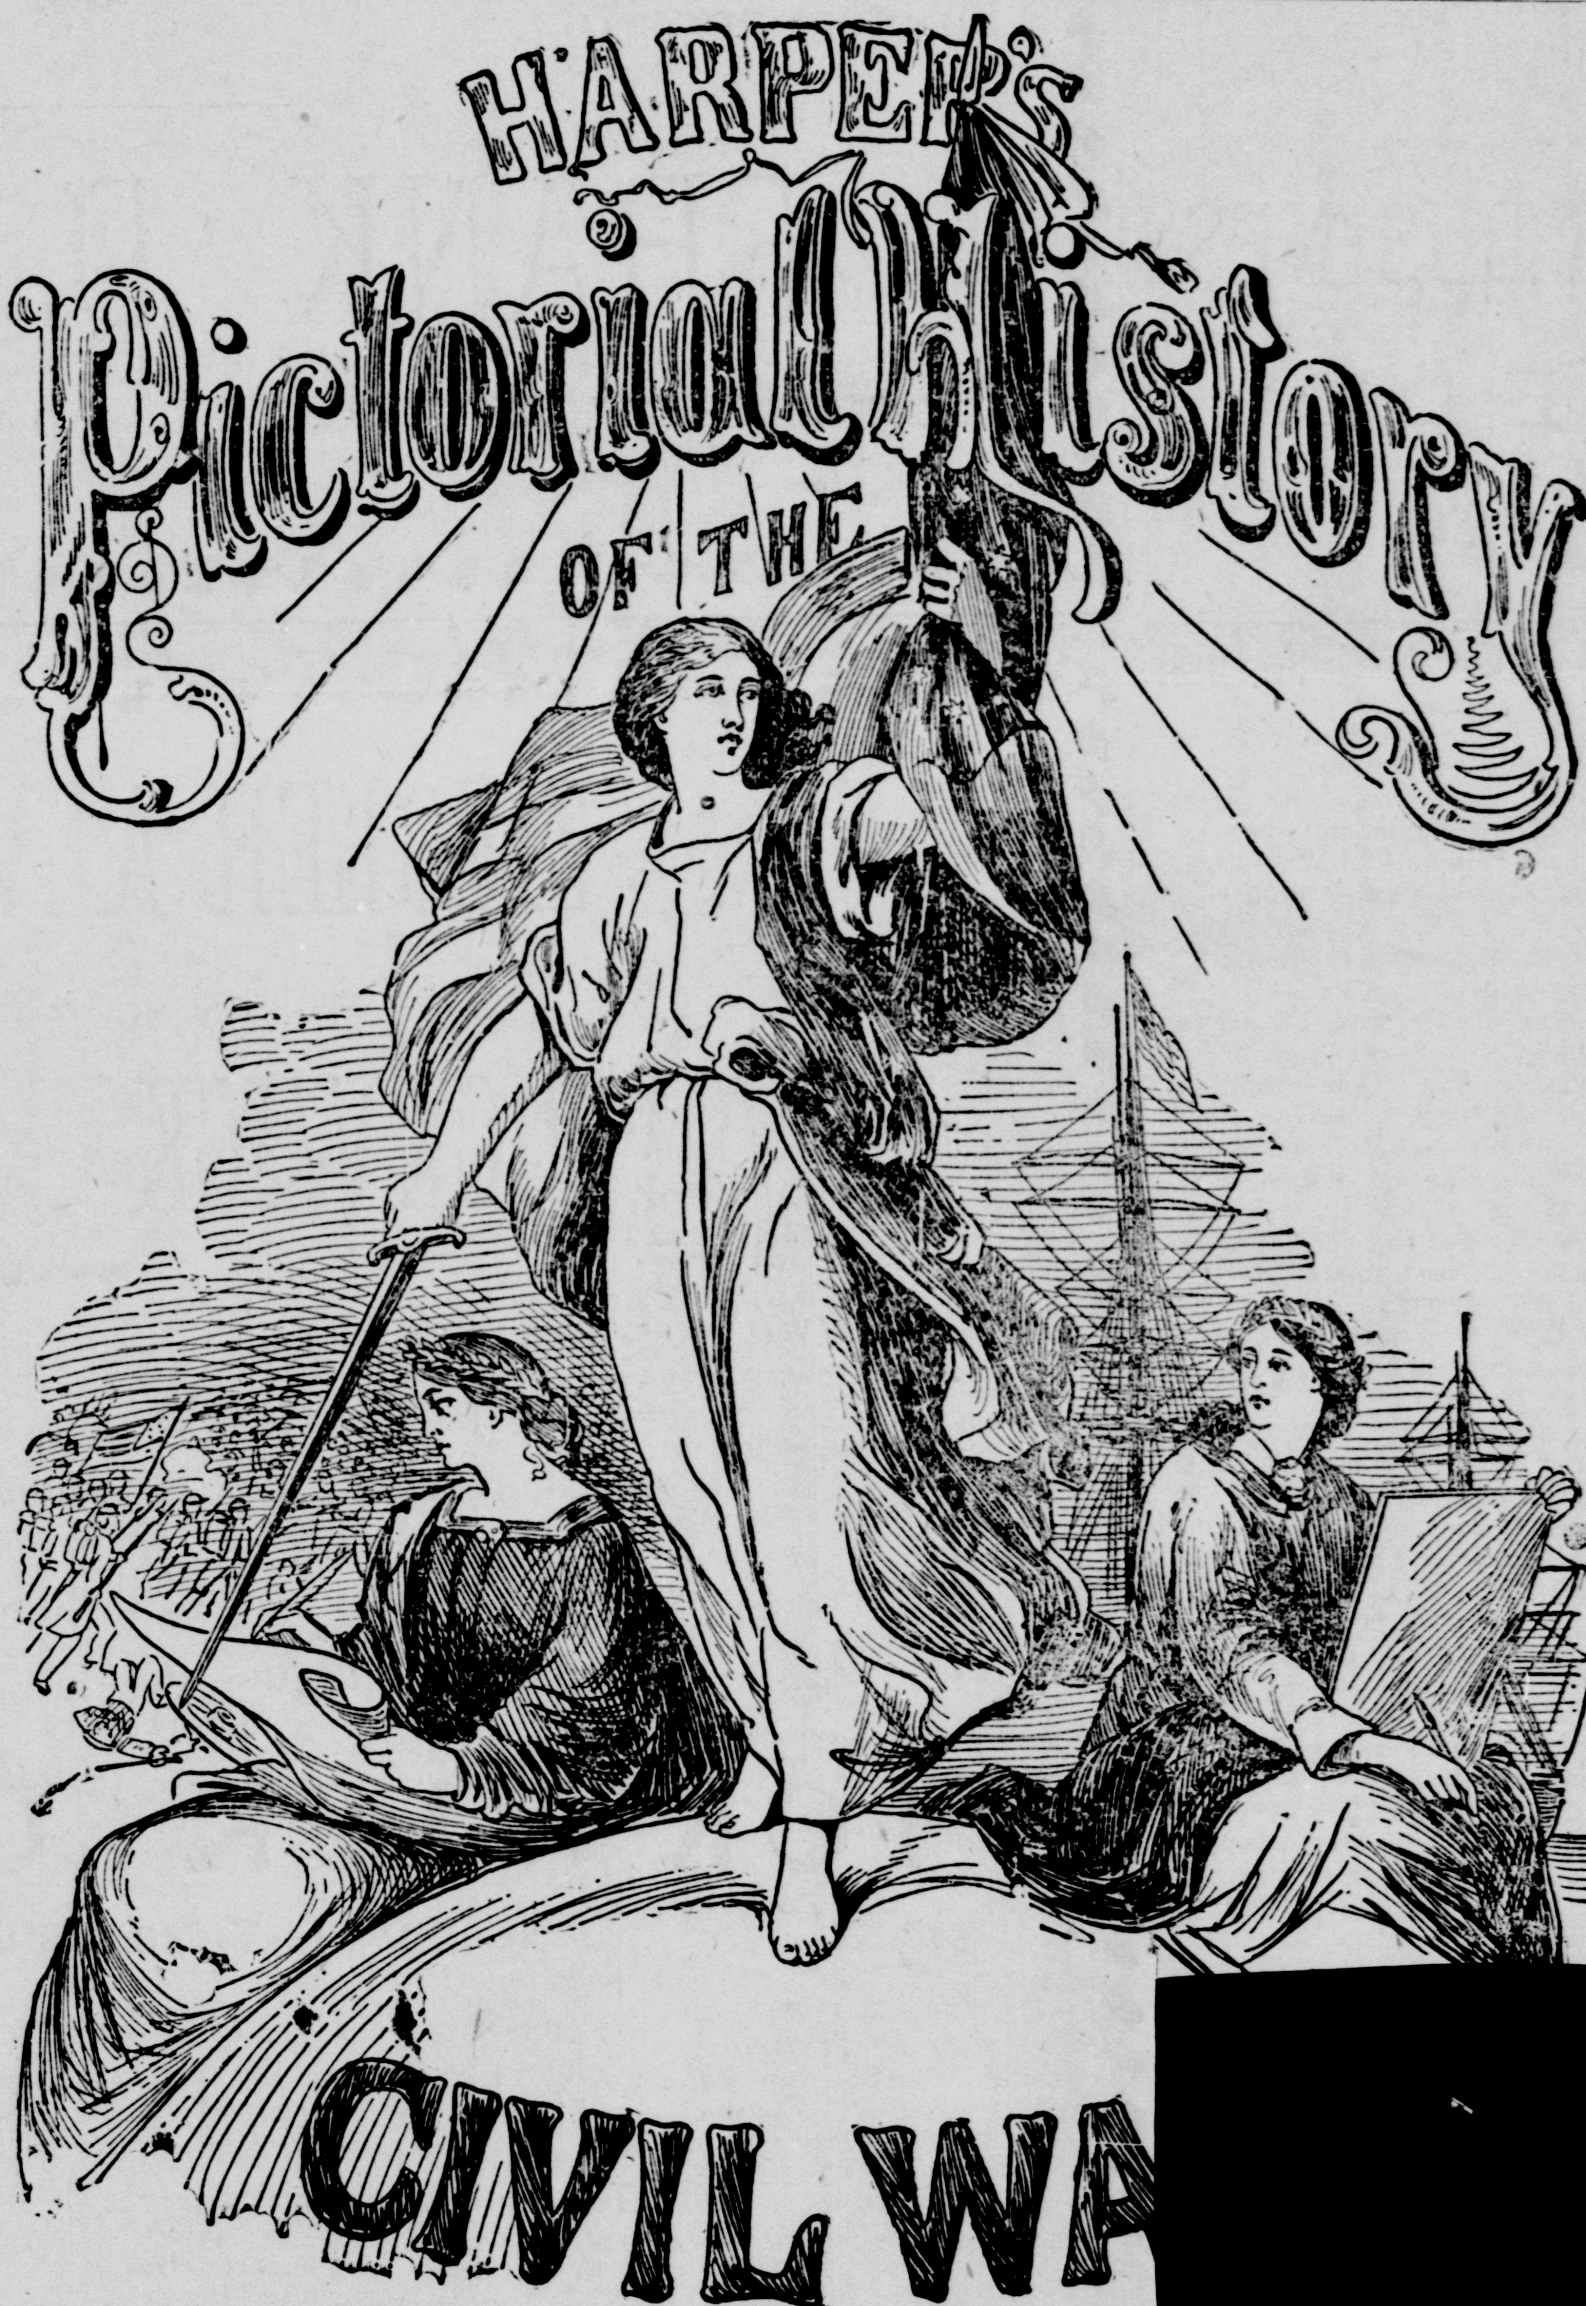

—AND—

Celery.

do for Sunday dinner?

DUNN BROTHERS.

TELEPHONE 179.

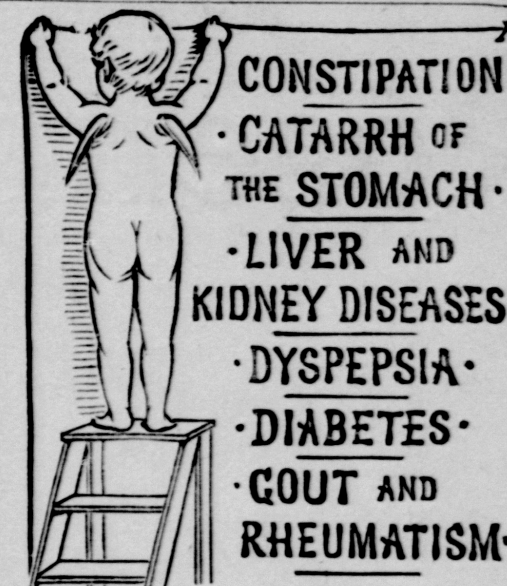

Harper's Pictorial War

It was the intention of the publishers in issue complete it in 26 parts but so many Fine I were not originally planned for, have been added to the several p it has been found necessary to extend the work to one more part. This last part will conclude with a very complete and carefully p work, by the aid of which any person or event in the entire histo once. The index is one of the most valuable parts of the whole b as a practical history of the war.

One Coupon and 10 C

entitles you to any part desired. Bring in orders for the first Nu for the offer is limited.

CONSTIPATION
CATARRH OF
THE STOMACH
LIVER AND
KIDNEY DISEASES
DYSPEPSIA
DIABETES
GOUT AND RHEUMATISM

These are some of the diseases that are cured by the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. It is the veritable water of the Sprudel Spring—evaporated, solidified, concentrated. In every ailment of the kind, Carlsbad has become famous the world over, and for hundreds of years, as a prompt, permanent, natural remedy.

Beware of imitations sold as "improved" or "artificial" Carlsbad Salt, which consists only of ordinary Seidlitz Powder and Glauber Salt, and are sold by unscrupulous dealers upon the reputation of the genuine.

Be sure to obtain the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt only, with the seal of the city of Carlsbad, and the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON Co., Agts, New York," on every bottle.

War Book Coupon.

Send or bring one of these coupons and 10 cents in silver and get one part of this Great Story of the War. Two cents extra sent by mail.

The Biggest Stock of

Clothing

for laboring men in the city
Pants, Overalls, Underwear, Shirts,
Guaranteed the lowest for cash.

E. HALL,
55 Milwaukee St.

Shepp's World's Fair Photograph.

SPECIAL—

For a short time those who failed to secure regular coupons can get any issue or issues of Shepp's World's Fair Photographed, by presenting one copy of this advertisement, together with 10 cents for each part desired, at the Gazette office. The supply in several numbers is nearly exhausted. Early orders are advisable.

Picturesque America

Three of these coupons together with 10 cents, when presented at THE GAZETTE office will entitle the holder to one part of

APPLETON'S

Picturesque America.

no extra charge for back numbers

STATE OF WISCONSIN—CIRCUIT COURT
ROCK COUNTY, William Payne, plaintiff;
Samuel J. Boynton, William T. Kelly, Sandy
H. Sidney Smith, William K. Taylor, New-
Taylor, John W. Richardson, Gregor T. Han-
Mary Hanson, his wife and Nicholas John-defendants.

The State of Wisconsin, to said defendants:
You are hereby summoned to appear within 20 days after service of this summons, exclusive of a day of service, and defend the above entitled action in the court aforesaid; and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of complaint, of which a copy was filed in the clerk's office of this court on the 1st day of DUNWIDY, GOLDIN & WHEELER,
Plaintiff's Attorneys.
O. Address: Janesville, Rock Co. Wis.
men: 1894.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, COUNTY COURT for Rock County, in probate do hereby given that at a regular term of the county court to be held at said county at the court house, in the city of Janesville, in said county, on the 3rd day, being the 15th day of Sept. 1894, at 10 o'clock a.m. the following matter will be tried and considered:
The application of Mattie Sheppbell for the settlement and allowance of her account as executrix of the will of Ellis Sheppbell, late of the city of Janesville in said county, deceased, and for the assignment of the residue of the estate to such other persons as are named in the will of said deceased entitled thereby.
By the court,
J. W. SALE,
County Judge.

Ang. 15, 1894
1894

Rosenfeld

On The Bridge.

The Tramp

who was so hard up, that, if suits were selling for a cent apiece, he couldn't buy the arm-hole of a vest, induced our friend Jones to give him a suit. Jones came right over to our store and after he had looked over our

NEW FALL STYLES!

— OF —

Men's Suits, OVERCOATS,

AND

Boys' Clothing,

he said he really made money by his generosity. He bought a new suit for less than his old one cost.

We're HERE FOR BUSINESS

ROSENFELD.

On The Bridge.

HE "FIXED" THE PIANO.

The Carpenter Was Given a Job and He Did His Work Too Well.

A Utica, N. Y., family changed their residence from one street to another a few days since. Among the household effects was a handsome square piano, the cover of which had in process of transportation been slightly cracked. When the tuner came he noticed the cracked cover and told the lady of the house that he knew of a man who could repair it so that it could not be noticed. There was a carpenter working about the house and as the cost of moving had been considerable the lady decided to have the carpenter do the work, and informed the tuner that he need not send his expensive expert. Calling the carpenter she showed him the damaged cover and informed him that he could easily fix it with glue. The carpenter set about his task and the lady paid no further attention to him.

A day or two later she had company and was requested to play upon the piano. Failing, after repeated and strenuous efforts to lift the lid, she was compelled to forego the pleasure of entertaining her guests in this way. When her husband came home he exercised his muscle but to no avail. After three or four trials he began an examination and found that the carpenter had labored under the mistaken notion that the lid ought not to rise, and had accordingly placed a thick coating of glue between it and that part of the piano upon which it touched. To make the job undetectable complete, he further secured it by driving a tennypenny nail through it.

SPARROW SYMPATHY.

An Instance Showing That the Birds Have It for Their Kind.

"While walking along the street in the residence portion of the city last summer," says Dr. H. D. Osterman of Chicago, "I witnessed an incident that illustrated the sympathetic nature of birds. As I was walking along I noticed a little sparrow fluttering on the ground and apparently unable to rise. I stopped and was on the point of going to it to ascertain if possible the cause of its trouble, when all at once I noticed two full grown sparrows fly down from a neighboring tree and alight on the ground near by. I watched with a good deal of interest to see what they would do. The old birds hopped around a minute or two and then one of them picked up a little bare twig about three inches long. The old bird took hold of one end of the stick with his beak, while its companion took hold of the other end in the same manner. They then approached the young bird, that still fluttered helplessly on the ground, and it caught hold of the middle of the stick with its beak. The old birds then flew up to a tree, carrying the young bird hanging the stick between them to a place of safety."

Oscar Cobb Able To Hear.

The following letter from Oscar Cobb, the well-known Chicago architect, will be read with interest by the readers of the Gazette.

Office of Oscar Cobb, Architect.
Rooms 1509-10 Manhattan Bldg.
Chicago, Feb. 12, 1894.

Dr. H. A. McChesney, Janesville, Wisconsin.

Dear Sir:—As you know I began treatment two weeks ago for a deafness of ten years' standing ing caused by a catarrhal stoppage around the ear, creating a continuous ringing noise that made it impossible to hear or catch a sound at any considerable distance. In that brief space (14 days) I find myself so greatly relieved that in going to church yesterday and occupying a pew in the rear, I was surprised that I could hear distinctly every word from the pulpit, a blessing that I have not enjoyed for years. I join most heartily in recommending your Catarrh Cure to everybody afflicted with catarrh in any form, and particularly of the head and throat, and advise them to try your medicines, as they will certainly find immediate and sure relief, and I firmly believe a permanent cure.

Your friend and well wisher,
OSCAR COBB.
Dr. McChesney's Catarrh Cure is on sale by all drugstores. Don't experiment with inferior remedies.

WE DON'T BELONG TO THE TRUST, WE BELIEVE IN BUYING.

FURNITURE

wherever we can get it the cheapest and sell it likewise. We discarded high prices long ago, consequently the trust discarded us. We have enough furniture bought for this season's business to start three fine furniture stores. It is arriving now.

We will Discount ANY price Named By any other Furniture house in the city.

WE STAND ALONE. HAVE YOU SEEN THOSE HANDSOME

COUCHES

We will sell them one at a time for the same others pay the factory. Our goods are not in the house long enough to become shop worn, Only high-priced dealers keep their furniture. We belong to no trust or combine to hold furniture prices up.

FRANK D. KIMBALL,

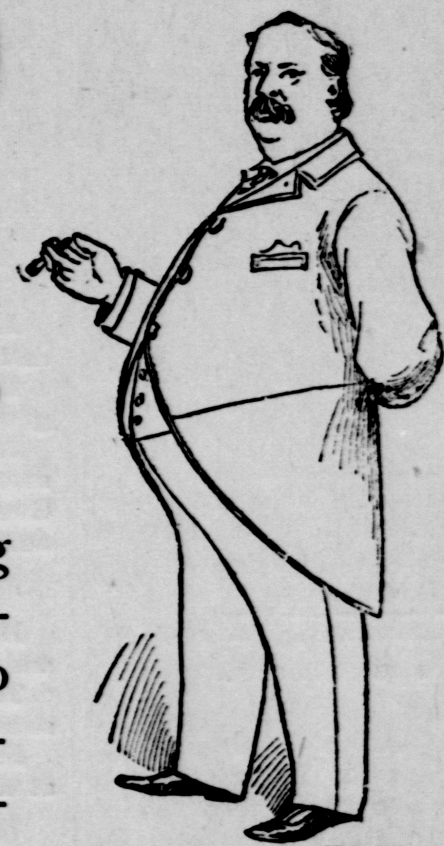

The Leading Furniture Dealer and Undertaker. Not a member of the trust.

ZIEGLER ALWAYS LEAD

ANOTHER GREAT OFFERING OF THE FAMOUS

PICKWICK CLOTHING.

We have no fear or hesitancy in stating that Pickwick Clothing is the best and cheapest ever offered in Janesville. We have no damaged stock. We need none. We advertise no fake, we sell cheaper than those supposed damage sales.

PICKWICK OVERCOATS

25 PER CENT CHEAPER THAN LAST YEAR.

Stout overcoats 42 to 48 inch breast Extra size overcoats 44 to 60 inch breast. Long and slim overcoats 33 to 38 inch breast, cut 50 to 56 inch long. Extra long overcoats 38 to 44 inch breast, cut 52 to 58 inches long. The above overcoats come in Kersey, Melton, Frieze and Beavers.

No clothing house in the city carries the assortment we do. No clothing house makes as low prices because they can't buy as cheap.

Extra Inducements For Monday.

HANDSOME - NECKWEAR

FOR THIS EVENING.

T. J. ZEIGLER.

